

Contents

1	National Mapping as a Business-Like Enterprise David Rhind	1
2.	Spatial Data Policy and Pricing in the United States Stephen C. Guptill and Diane F. Eldridge	19
3.	Digital Data, Copyright, Commercialization and Related Issues - A Canadian Perspective Mark Corey	29
4.	Availability and Pricing of Georeferenced Data in Asia Pacific Anthony Gar-On Yeh	47
5.	Copyright Law Issues in Modern Cartography Lesley Ellen Harris	71
6.	The Protection and Availability of Digital Cartographic Information and Products Laila Aslesen	89
7.	Legal Protection of Geographic Databases: The Viewpoint of the Institut Geographique National, France Jean-Philippe Grelot	113
8.	A Private Sector Perspective Ed Kennedy	125
9.	Tragedy of the Information Commons Harlan J. Onsrud	141
10.	Availability of Geospatial Data through Libraries in The United States Mary Lynette Larsgaard	159
11.	Modern Cartography, Policy Issues and the Developing Nations: Rhetoric and Reality D. R. Fraser Taylor	185

12. Professional Responsibility and Ethics In The Spatial Sciences 215
 Nancy J. Obermeyer

13. The Three R's of GIS-Based Site Selection: Representation, Resistance and Ridicule 233
 Mark Monmonier

14. Why GIS Needs Postmodern Social Theory, And Vice Versa 249
 Lakshman Yapa

Conclusion
Some Remaining Challenges 271
 D. R. Fraser Taylor

Index 275