

1. Exciting Geography	15
Herculano Cachinho , How to design and implement exciting geographical learning experiences in the classroom	17
Karl Donert , The use of ICT in Geography departments in European higher education	22
John Halocha , Primary Childrens' Understanding of Fieldwork Experiences.....	32
Vladimir Herber , Multimedia learning of geographical subjects	39
Jaromír Kolejka , Eduard Hofmann, Geographical fieldwork in forests.....	43
Nikos Lambrinos , A pupils' approach to a judicial conflict between rivers and humans.....	48
Iwona Piotrowska , Observation and presentation of phenomena in Geography Education	52
Margaret Roberts , Constructing the world through the curriculum	58
Jolanta Rodzoś , Przemysław Charzyński , Training geography teachers in Poland with regard to changes in school education.....	65
Jolanta Rodzoo , Paweł Pytka , Artur Religa , Interdisciplinary pathways: gains and losses	72
Jüri Roosaare Ülle Liiber , Geography competitions as stimuli for advanced students	79
Yvonne Schleicher , Mark Lawrence , GIS-Use in Geography Lessons at Schools, Colleges and Universities – Innovation and Challenge	84
Lieselot Vandenhoute , Remote Sensing in Geography Education, illustrated by a vegetation dynamics study (Kikwit region, Democratic Republic of Congo)	89
2. Professional Development and Geography	95
Maria Attard , Developing Undergraduate GIS Study-units – The Experience of Malta	97
Theresa Barata Salgueiro , Geography programs and Bologna.....	102
Tine Béneker , Leo Paul , Rob van der Vaart , The added value of international students groups in geography classrooms	107
Donatas Burneika , International collaboration in distance education for geography students – experience of Vilnius University	112
Moira Buttigieg , The Role of the Geography Teachers' Association (Malta) in the Professional Development of Teachers.....	117
Xosé Constenla-Vega , Miguel Pazos-Otón , Xosé Manuel Santos-Solla , Luis M^a Ulloa-Gutián , Networking and social diffusion of Critical Geography in Galicia (Spain): The “Abalar” Project	122
Stelian Dimitrov , Anton Popov , The place of Geoinformation technologies in the education and professional development of European geographers.....	127

Kim Chuan Goh , The Future of Geography and Geography Education in Southeast Asia: Issues and Challenges.....	132
Arild Holt-Jensen , The status of geography in Norway; an issue of grave concern	137
Eila Jeronen, Sirpa Anttila-Muilu , Effective Practices in Distance Education in Upper Secondary Level Geography in Finland	146
Aikaterini Klonari, Kostis C Koutsopoulos , Primary and Secondary Educators' Attitudes on School Geography	151
Miroslav Marada, Dana Řezníčková , Charles University geography graduates in practise: the relationship between the concept of education and professional success	156
Gábor Mezősi , New Training Structure in Geography Education in Hungary	161
Finn Moller , Evaluation, assessment and geographical education.....	169
Manuel Mollá , The Relationship between Geography and Other Disciplines In Spanish Higher Education.....	174
Kliment Naydenov, Peter Slaveykov , Why Managers from Multinational Companies Must Have Specialization in Geography	180
Leo Paul, Tine Béneker, Rob van der Vaart , A multilevel approach to professional development. The example of the Department of Human Geography and Planning in Utrecht	183
Tatjana Resnik Planinc , Times of Change for Geography Education in Slovenia	188
Gert Ruepert, Anouk Adang, Sandor Kreuze , The Evolution of a European Student Network	195
Salih Şahin, Servet Karabag , An evaluation of geography and geography education in Turkey	202
Daniela Schmeinck , Europe in geographical education – An international comparison of factors influencing the perceptions of primary school pupils.....	206
Michael N. Solem , Internationalizing geography in higher education: initiatives of the association of american geographers.....	212
Jose Somoza Medina , The Position of Geography Graduates in the Labour Market in Castile and Leon (Spain).....	218
Maria Villanueva , To have and to have not. Some questions on secondary Geography in Spain	223
3. Intercultural Aspects in Geographical Education	228
Mireia Baylina Maria Prats , What Europe do we teach? A view from Spanish Geography.....	230
Margaret C. Keane , Geography Forum: Intercultural Learning Online ...	236
Valérie Kociemba, Mayté Banzo , Geography teaching and European citizenship: are things changing in France?	241

Barbara Katharina Mayerhofer , Teaching Geography in English at Austrian Schools, Models, Practice and Intercultural Gain	247
Olivier Mentz , Do you speak European? or: Why even Geographers should know more than English... ..	252
Peris Persi, Erika Roccato , Intercultural education in Italian Geography	258
Danuta Piróg , Geographical education vs. cultural education and education of culture in Polish schools – theoretical reflections	263
Andrew Powell, Urszula Basini , Developing global citizenship through geographical education: examples from Kerala, India	269
Joanna Szczesna, Paweł Wojtanowicz , The role of geographical education in shaping regional identity of children	276
Rob van der Vaart Tine Béneker Leo Paul , Getting geography students involved in European integration	283
Anne Wheeler, John Smith, Albert Rydant, Serguey Larin , The Role of International Staff and Student Collaboration in the Enhancement of the Geographic Curriculum	287
Mark Wise , Geography and Languages in Intercultural Education: does the spatial diffusion of English hinder or help intercultural geographical understanding?	292
4. Global and Environmental Geography	299
Barbara Gambini , Sustainable development: let geographers take the lead (with a little help from some friends).....	300
Jesus Granados , The contribution of Geography teachers to Education for Sustainability: a case study	305
Alois Hynek, Nikola Hynek , Sustainability, Development and Security in Landscape Field Practice	308
Massimo De Marchi , Developing geographical professional abilities: experiences in Egypt and Brazil.....	314
Daniela Zlatunova Nina Nikolova , Studying climate and water resources management in Bulgaria in the context of global environmental management.....	320