

Contents

Foreword by Sir Roger Scruton xix

Note on the Text of the Current Edition xxv

Preliminary Note to the German Edition xxix

Introduction i

CHARACTERISTICS COMMON TO ALL THE ARTS

VARIOUS ATTITUDES TOWARD ART

1. The Ontological Reality of Works of Art 5
2. The Work of Art Is Not a Projection of the Artist ii
3. Wrong Attitudes to Art 17
4. The Combinations between the Different Arts 29
5. The Claim Made by a Work of Art to Greatness and Depth 39

ARCHITECTURE

6. Architecture in General 47
7. Architecture as an Expression of History 63
8. Types of Buildings 79
9. How Architecture Combines with Sculpture, Mosaics, and Frescos 103

- 10. Interior Architecture 109
- 11. The Beauty of a City as a Whole 123
- 12. Architecture and Nature 129
- 13. The Architectural Forming of Nature 139
- 14. Applied Art [Das Kunstgewerbe] 147
- 15. Representation in the Imitative Arts 159

SCULPTURE

- 16. The Artistic Importance of That Which Is Represented in Sculpture 171
- 17. The Various Types of Sculpture 179
- 18. Factors Determining the Artistic Value of a Sculpture 185
- 19. Comedy and Grotesqueness 199

PAINTING

- 20. Representation [Darstellung] in Painting 207
- 21. Subject Matter [Stoff] and Form 227
- 22. The Artistic Means Employed in Painting 237
- 23. Drawing, Fresco, Mosaic, Illustration 253

LITERATURE

- 24. The Form of Existence of the Literary Work of Art 265
- 25. The Medium of Language 269
- 26. The Contact with the Object in Literature 279
- 27. Sound [Laut], Tone [Klang], and Rhythm 289
- 28. The Expressive Qualities of Words and Figures of Speech 307
- 29. The Theme That Is Proper to Literature 317
- 30. The Compositional Means Used by Literature 323
- 31. Composition and Storyline 335
- 32. The Artistic Transposition of Evil, Repulsive, Tragic, and Comic Figures 343

MUSIC

33. The Basic Elements of Music 365
34. Representation [Darstellung] and Expression [Ausdruck]
in Music 385
35. The Variety of Artistic Value Qualities in Music 397
36. The Lied [Das Kunstlied] 421
37. The Folksong 439
38. Opera 451
39. The Principal Types of Opera 461
40. Music Drama 485
41. Stand-Alone Overtures and Program Music 497
42. Sacred Music 503
43. The Performance of Musical and Literary Works 511
44. The Viability of a Work of Art 535

Index 555

Index of Names, Places, and Works 567