

CONTENTS

List of tables	viii
Acknowledgements	ix
1 Pressure Groups and Policy-Making	1
PART I: Theory
2 Pluralism, Corporatism and Marxism: Traditional Approaches to State/Group Relations	15
3 State Autonomy and Policy Networks: Reconceptualising State/Group Relations	48
4 Social Change, Ideology and Pressure Groups: How Policy Networks Change	76
PART II: Case studies
5 Agricultural Policy: The Paradigm Policy Community	101
6 Business and Public Policy: The Problem of Business Policy Networks	136
7 Professional Power: The Doctors and Health Policy	163
8 Public Interest Groups and Policy Networks: The Case of Consumer Policy	197
9 Pressure Groups, Policy Networks and the State	222
Bibliography	236
Index	257