

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Introduction	1
Elsbeth Guild

Part I – The European Arrest Warrant

Chapter 2: The European Arrest Warrant Framework Decision between Past and Future	13
Nico Keijzer

Part II – Analyses of the Judgments

Chapter 3: The First Two Years of Fiddling around with the Implementation of the European Arrest Warrant (EAW) in Cyprus	75
Elias A. Stefanou &amp; Andreas Kapardis

Chapter 4: The European Arrest Warrant in Finland – Taking Fundamental and Human Rights Seriously	89
Tuomas Ojanen

Chapter 5: The European Arrest Warrant in Germany – Constitutional Mistrust towards the Concept of Mutual Trust	101
Florian Geyer

Chapter 6: The European Arrest Warrant and the Polish Constitutional Court Decision of 27 April 2005	125
Kazimierz Bem

Chapter 7: The Belgian Court of Arbitration and the European Arrest Warrant	137
Luc Walley

Part III – Reflections from Two ‘User’ Member States

Chapter 8: The Relationship of Extradition Law in International Treaties with the European Arrest Warrant and its Application in France	141
Roger Errera

Chapter 9: Spain and the European Arrest Warrant – The View of a ‘Key User’	163
Mar Jimeno Bulnes

Part IV – Beyond the Member States – the Perspectives

Chapter 10: Implementation of the European Arrest Warrant and the Constitutional Impact in the Member States Sébastien Combeaud	187
Chapter 11: The European Arrest Warrant – Practical Problems and Constitutional Challenges Pavel Zeman	195
Chapter 12: The Democratic Concerns regarding the Operation of the European Arrest Warrant Joanna Arop	201
Chapter 13: The Supremacy of International Law and Judicial Cooperation with International Jurisdictions Luc Walley	209
Chapter 14: The Academic Assessment of the European Arrest Warrant – A Review of the Literature Diede Jan Dieben	215
Chapter 15: Drawing the Conclusions: Constitutional Concerns regarding the European Arrest Warrant Elsbeth Guild	267