

Contents

List of Illustrations	ix
Acknowledgements	x
Introduction: The Dress Rehearsal	1
Approaches to Costume	3
Seeing Through Costume	8
Walking Around the Book	11
1 Dressing Rooms: The Actor's Body and Costume	13
Dressing-Room Bodies	14
The Actor's Body	19
Dressing Fiona Shaw	25
Dressing and Disorientation	33
2 Dressing the Audience: A History of Fashion at the Theatre	34
Fashion and the Exemplary Actor	38
Variety and Novelty	40
The Actor as the Servant of Fashion	46
Metaphors of the Self	49
Inventing the Self	55
3 Re-Dressing the Actor: Modernist Costume	57
Naturalism, Surface and Depth	60
Inventing the Actor	64
Beauty and Usefulness	69
Re-Imagining Costume	76
4 Cross-Dressing: Authenticity and Identity	78
Dressing-Down: Blackface Minstrelsy	81
Othello and the Residue of Minstrelsy	87
The Emperor Jones	90
True and Natural Bodies	97
5 Undressing: The Disappointments of Nudity	99
Striptease	102
Looking and Power	106

Male Nudity	108
Celebrity Striptease	111
Weary Nudity	114
Nudity as Costume	118
6 Dressing the Immaterial: Costume and the Problem of Ghosts	119
Dressing Ghosts	122
Reactions to Ghosts	124
Modern and Post-Modern Ghosts	128
Failed Ghosts	133
The Ghost in the Curtain Call	135
Ghostly Costumes	137
Epilogue: After Effects – Costume and the Memory of Performance	139
Bibliography	144
Index	151