

Contents

Acknowledgments	page ix
List of abbreviations	xi
Introduction	i
1 The administrative threshold	15
2 The emerging government of Charles V	20
3 The conflict between chancellor and emperor	40
4 The imperial chancellery	59
5 The imperial propaganda campaign of 1526–1527	86
6 The last years of the chancellorship	114
Epilogue	140
Appendix I The Summary by Philippe Hanneton, audiencier of the Burgundian chancellery, regarding the office of the Grand Chancellor	144
Appendix II 'The Doubts of [Alonso de] Soria', lieutenant protonotary, concerning Gattinara's proposals for reforming the Aragonese chancellery	148
Appendix III Gattinara's 'Brussels Remonstrance'	151
Appendix IV Gattinara's proposals for the more effective operation of the Council of State	161
Appendix V A comparative analysis of the movements of the imperial court and the imperial chancellery 1518–1530	164
Bibliography	166
Index	183