CONTENTS

Preface – Gary B. Co	hen	vii
Notes on Contributo	ors	ix
Introduction - Nancy M. Wingfield		1
Part One The Origins and Cha	anging Images of the Other to 1848
	tional Territory: Cartography and Hungary, 1700-1848	19
	f Ethnic Stereotypes in Austria and Early Nineteenth Century	39
3. Czechs, Germans in Bohemia to 18 Hugh LeCain		56
Part Two Austria-Hungary in t	he Age of Nationalism
	e Other in the Nineteenth Century: rship in the Bohemian Lands	81
Formation of the	d Peasants: Jews as Others in the Modern Polish Nation in Rural Galicia d Half of the Nineteenth Century	103
6. Nationalizing Ru 1880-1914 Pieter M. Jud	ral Landscapes in Cisleithania,	127

7.	Ethnology, Cultural Reification, and the Dynamics of Difference in the Kronprinzenwerk Regina Bendix	149
	Three Legacy: Where Images Collide
8.	Hungarian Motifs in the Emergence and the Decline of a Czechoslovak National Narrative, 1890-1930 Peter Haslinger	169
9.	The South Slavs in the Austrian Imagination: Serbs and Slovenes in the Changing View from German Nationalism to National Socialism Christian Promitzer	183
10.	Peoples of the Mountains, Peoples of the Plains: Space and Ethnographic Representation Karl Kaser	216
11.	Marking the Difference or Looking for Common Ground? Southeast Central Europe Oto Luthar and Breda Luthar	231
12.	The Psychology of Creating the Other in National Identity, Ethnic Enmity, and Racism Peter Loewenberg	243
Select Bibliography		257
Inde	ex	260