

Contents

Maps and Tables	ix
How to Use This Book	xi
Preface	xiii
Changing Names	xvii

Introduction: Places and Peoples	I
----------------------------------	---

Part 1: The Dynamics of the Eighteenth Century

1. Southeast Asian Livelihoods	19
2. Inner Life and Identity	35
3. The Struggle for Political Authority	52

Part 2: New Choices and Constraints

4. Dynasties and Colonies, Boundaries and Frontiers	75
5. Myanmar Becomes British Burma	83
6. Siam: From Ayutthaya to Bangkok	93
7. Vietnam, 1700–1885: Disunity, Unity, and French Conquest	106
8. Cambodia, 1796–1884: Politics in a Tributary Kingdom	117
9. Realignment: The Making of the Netherlands East Indies, 1750–1914	123

10. The Malay Negeri of the Peninsula and Borneo, 1775–1900	137
11. The Spanish Philippines	147
 Part 3: Economic, Political, and Social Transformations
12. Globalization and Economic Change	161
13. Modes of Production, Old and New	180
14. Consolidation of Colonial Power and Centralization of State Authority	201
15. Living in a Time of Transition	222
16. Perceptions of Race, Gender, and Class in the Colonial Era	243
17. Channels of Change	252
18. Depression and War	268
 Part 4: Passages Out of the Colonial Era
19. The Philippines, 1896–1972: From Revolution to Martial Law	283
20. Becoming Indonesia, 1900–1959	296
21. British Malaya	312
22. British Burma and Beyond	322
23. Vietnam, 1885–1975: Colonialism, Communism, and Wars	335
24. Siam Becomes Thailand, 1910–1973	350
25. Cambodia, 1884–1975	361
26. Laos to 1975	371
 Part 5: Coping with Independence and Interdependence
27. Industrialization and Its Implications	379
28. Human Consequences of the Economic “Miracle”	399
29. Malaysia since 1957	414
30. Singapore and Brunei	422
31. Indonesia: The First Fifty Years	431
32. The Kingdom of Thailand	448
33. The Philippines since 1972	455
34. Vietnam after 1975: From Collectivism to Market Leninism	468
35. Cambodia since 1975	481
36. Laos since 1975	492
37. Burma Becomes Myanmar	497
Afterword	507
Notes	509
About the Authors	517
Index	521