

Preface v
 Acknowledgments ix
 List of Acronyms xvii

PART I

BUSINESS AND ITS ENVIRONMENT

1 Political Economy, Public Policy, and the Market 3

Public Policy and the Business Environment 4
 Business-Government Relations Are Critical 6
 This Book's Design 7
 A Changing World Environment 7
 Types of Public Policy 9
 The Trap of Ideology and Political Labels 9
 Private Organizations: A Kaleidoscope of Forms 10
 Corporations 12
 U.S. Business-Government Relations: A Summary 12

PART II

MARKETS AND POLITICS

2 How Markets Work 19

The Market 20
 Political Economy 20
 Three Working Assumptions 22
 Ethical Concerns 23
 How the Market Is Supposed to Work 24
 Arguments for Laissez-Faire 26
 Efficiency 26
 Innovation 27
 Liberty 28
 The Price Mechanism 29
 Scarcity Pricing 30
 Price Controls 30

3 Market Failure and Government Failure 33

Correcting Market Failure 33
 Roles of the State 35
 The Major Market Failures 37
 Public Goods 37
 Problems of Collective Action 39
 Externalities or Neighborhood Effects 41

- Monopoly and Imperfect Competition 42
- Limited or Lopsided Information 42
- Agency Problems 43
- Social Goals 45
- Inequality and Unfairness 46
- Economic Instability 48
- How States Fail 49
 - Rent-Seeking Behavior 49
 - Interest Groups and Lobbying 51
 - Too Little Feedback 52
 - Politicians 54
 - Voters and Elections 54
 - The Law of Unintended Consequences 55
- A Tempered View of Government Failure 56

- 4 Corporate Social Responsibility and Stakeholders 62
 - Business Ethics and Corporate Social Responsibility 63
 - Modes of Analysis in Business Ethics 64
 - Utilitarianism 64
 - Rights-Based Views 65
 - Stakeholders and Business Obligations 68
 - International Stakeholder Issues 69
 - Competing Stakeholder Demands 70
 - Customers 72
 - Workers 72
 - Creditors 72
 - Local Communities and Government 72
 - Balancing Stakeholders 73

- PART III

- GOVERNMENT ECONOMIC INTERVENTION

- 5 Public Policy and the Rise of Business Enterprise: Historical Dimensions 79
 - The Industrial Revolution 79
 - Rising Standards of Living 81
 - Post-Industrial Society 81
 - Market-Driven Factors and the Industrial Revolution 83
 - Political Prerequisites for the Market 83
 - Umpire and Rule Maker 84
 - From Exchange to Development 87
 - Rising Regulation 95

- 6 Democracy, Capitalism, Socialism: Today's Political and Economic Systems 99
 - Liberal Democratic States 100
 - Nondemocratic States 101
 - People's Democracy 101
 - Third World Authoritarian Regimes 102
 - Pluralism and Corporatism 103
 - Alternative Economic Systems 105
 - Capitalism 105
 - Socialism 106
 - Mixed Economies 113
 - Government Spending 114
 - State-Owned Enterprise 115
 - The State: Getting Out of Business? 116

- 7 Fiscal Policy: Taxing and Spending 124
 - Where Does the Money Come From? 125
 - Traditional Taxes 125
 - Personal and Corporate Income Tax 128
 - Social Insurance Payments 130
 - General Consumption Taxes 131
 - Property Tax 132
 - Regulatory "Taxes" 133
 - Nontax Revenue 133
 - Where Does the Money Go? 135
 - "Welfare" for Business 135
 - Indirect Subsidies 137

State Bidding Wars 140
 Privatization and Contracting Out 141
 Miscellaneous Subsidies 143

Independent Regulatory Commissions 191
 The Congressional Connection 194
 The Judiciary 195
 Political Parties 198

PART IV

MAKING PUBLIC POLICY

8 Business, Interest Groups, and Political Influence 149

The Public Interest 150
 Business and Democracy 151
 Group-Based Politics 152
 Interest Group Competition 152
 Is Business on Top? 153
 Corporatist Alternatives 155
 Types of Interest Groups 155
 Business Self-Representation 156
 Business Interest Groups 157
 Labor Unions 161
 Public Interest Groups 162
 Altruism and Public Policy 163
 Tactics for Interest Groups 164
 Public Issues Management 165
 How Lobbying Is Done 168
 Lobbying in Other Political Systems 169
 The Ethics of Lobbying 169
 Political Action Committees 170
 The Cost of Campaign Finance 173
 Reforms 173

9 Political Institutions: How the Policy Process Is Organized 178

Policy-Making Systems 178
 The Architecture of American Politics 179
 Federalism 180
 Weak Government 181
 Foreign Political Systems 182
 Legislative Branch 184
 Executive Branch 186

10 Collective Decisions: Muddling Through 204

Decision-Making Systems 204
 An Overview of How Policy Systems Work 206
 Simplistic versus Realistic Explanations for Public Policy 206
 How a Bill Becomes Law 208
 Hearings 209
 Debate 211
 Reconciling House and Senate Versions 212
 The President's Role 214
 Authorization and Appropriation 215
 Power to the People? 216
 How Rules and Regulations Are Made 216
 The Power of Civil Servants 216
 Making the Rules 218
 Getting the Rules to Stick 219
 Criticisms of the Regulatory Process 220
 Policies and Politics 222
 Four Types of Policies and Politics 222

PART V

BUSINESS AND SOCIAL REGULATION

11 Public Policy and Corporate Governance 231

Shareholders' Rights 231
 Problems with the Corporate Form of Organization 233
 Conflicts of Interest 233

Executives—Out of Control?	234
Governing the Publicly Traded Corporation	236
Two Models of Governance	237
Which Model Works Better?	237
Annual Meetings	239
Boards of Directors	240
Stronger Boards?	241
Exit and Voice in Corporate Governance	243
Activist Shareholders	244
Institutional Owners	244
Shareholders' Bill of Rights	245
Enhancing Shareholder Voice with New Public Policy	246
Creditor Stakeholders	246
Chapter 11	247
Chapter 7	248
Creditors versus Owners	248
Listening to Employee Stakeholders	248
"Workers' Capitalism"	249
Quality Circles	250

12 Public Policy and Workers' Rights 253

Employment-at-Will Doctrine	254
Child Labor Laws	255
Wages and Hours	255
The Right to Fair Treatment	257
Organized Labor	262
Discrimination on the Job	263
Protected Groups	266
The Antidiscrimination Agencies	268
Defining Illegal Discrimination	268
Sexual Harassment	270
Illegal Aliens	271
Affirmative Action	271
Other Programs to Help Minority Business and Employment	272
The Ethics of Affirmative Action	273
Mandated Social Benefits	275
Workers' Rights and National Competitiveness	278

The Quest for Flexible National Labor Markets	280
The Challenge from Developing Countries	281
New Forms of Work	282

13 Public Policy and Safety 285

Consumer Safety	286
Consumer Safety under Common Law	286
Modern Interpretations of Common Law	287
The Logic of Product Liability	288
Flaws in the System	289
The Cost of Liability Insurance	291
The Political Reaction	292
The Consumer Safety Agencies	293
Pitfalls of the Regulatory Approach	295
Reform and Deregulation	296
Occupational Safety and Health	298
Workers' Compensation	299
The Workers' Compensation Crisis	302
Direct Regulation of Worker Safety	302
The OSHA Controversy	303
The Political Fight over Occupational Safety Regulation	305

14 Public Policy, Pollution, and Resource Conservation 308

A Global Problem	308
Threats to the Physical Environment	310
Tragedy of the Commons	312
Environmental Ethics	313
Government Intervention	314
The Costs and Benefits of Environmental Protection	315
Earth Rights	317
Public Policy toward Nature	317
Political Clashes	319
National Environmental Agencies	319
Other Institutions	321
Environmental Protection Overseas	322

International Cooperation . . . or Lack Thereof	324
Direct Controls versus Incentives	325
Pollution Taxes and Permits	326
Policy Experiments	327
The Reagan Revolution and Its Aftermath	328

PART VI

BUSINESS AND ECONOMIC REGULATION15 Public Policy and Competition
335

What Is Antitrust Policy?	336
Big Business	337
The Legal Framework for Antitrust Policy	337
Sherman Antitrust Act	340
The "Rule of Reason"	341
The Clayton Act	342
The Federal Trade Commission	343
Tensions in the Policy	343
Exemptions from Antitrust	344
Revoking the Exemptions	346
R&D Consortia	346
Antitrust and Foreign Competitors	347
Joint Ventures	348
Suits and Penalties	349
Structure, Conduct, and Performance	350
Measuring Monopoly	351
Types of Mergers	353
Foreign Takeovers	355
The Market for Corporate Control	356
The Clinton Administration Approach	358
Looking at Conduct	358
Deception and Fair Competition	359

16 Public Policy, Innovation, and Technology 363

Industrial Policy	363
The Japanese Example	364

The American Style	364
Sunrise and Sunset Industries	365
A Debate Full of Sound and Fury	366
Government Incompetence	366
The Technological Pork Barrel	368
Losing the Technological Lead?	368
Government's Role in Basic and Applied Research	370
America's Hidden Industrial Policy	373
Policies for Mature Industries	375
Military Technology	376
Civilian Technology	378
An Uncertain Future	378
State Government Activities	380
Industrial Policy in a Comparative Perspective	381

17 Public Policy and Foreign Trade and Investment 385

Growing U.S. Involvement in the World Economy	386
The Trade Gap	386
Foreign Debt	388
Theories of International Trade	389
Free Trade	389
Mercantilism	390
Mercantilism Today	392
Inevitability of Protectionism	393
Government Vacillation	395
Foreign Investment	396
Multinational Corporations	397
The Exceptional Case of Japan	398
The General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade	398
GATT Negotiations	399
Weaknesses in the GATT	400
Export Promotion	402
Hidden Subsidies	403
Trading Companies and Foreign Trade Zones	403
Licensing Strategic Exports	404
The World Trade Organization	404
International Economic Cooperation	405
U.S. Government Agencies	406

Fighting Trade Wars 409
 Antidumping Activities 409
 Countervailing Duties 410
 Unfair Trade Practices 410
 Multinational Corporations 411

Losing the Global Economic Race . . .
 419
 . . . or Coming Out on Top? 420
 Optimism Resurgent 421
 Taking Stock 423
 Meaner . . . or Just Leaner? 424
 The Role of Government 425
 Saving and Investment 425
 Public Works 427
 Education 428

PART VII

CONCLUSION

18 The Rebirth of American Business? 417
 Competitiveness and Productivity 418

Glossary 435
 Cases 443
 Index 547