

Thank you, Maurice.

“... a man who has been called many things by many people, but has never been anything to us but a very, very good friend.”

Thank you for believing, for listening, for trusting, for collaborating, for mentoring, for inspiring, for sharing, for defending, for protecting, for teaching, for befriending, for nurturing, for feeding, for hustling, for fighting, for challenging, for pushing, for encouraging, and for never surrendering.

God blessed us with the greatest big brother in the history of the world when he blessed us with you.

And a hell of a big sister in Mary Alford, too.

Thank you, Maurice.

You are, and always will be, a shining Starr.
