

CONTENTS

Acknowledgements 9

Preface: Coal under the Pavement 10

THE STORY 13

Old Most 16

Demolition 25

The Idea 25

Negotiation 28

Organization 35

Everyday Life 48

Thinking the Story 67

Five Perspectives 67

The Landscape and the Society 72

Sources of Legitimacy 76

The Public Space and the Limits of Criticism 89

Faces of Modernity 93

Two Stories about Technology, Power, and Freedom 99

ALIENATION 109

Sudetenland 112

Gypsies 119

Misery and Defiance: Most as a Site of Memory 136

NUMBERS 145

Coal 148

Technology and Revolution 163

The Destruction of the City as an Investment Plan 178

UTOPIA 189

The Ideal City 193

Utopia in Practice 205

New Cities for a New Age	205
A War on Tradition?	209
Czechoslovak Variations	218
City of Roses	239
Between Stalin and Le Corbusier	241
The Welfare Dictatorship	253
A City without Roses	268

CRITICISM 279

Silent Spring	281
City, Forest, Smoke	297
In Defence of the Old Town	323

RECONCILIATION 351

The New Face of Modernity	355
The Amalgam of Normalization	361
The Velvet Demolition	371
A Bridge between the Past and the Future	382

A LABORATORY OF MODERNITY 399

Where the Present Begins	401
The Dialectics of the Age of the Technocrats	404
Destruction as the Achievement of Victory	410
The Story Continues	415

Maps 419

Acronyms and Abbreviations	422
Bibliography	424
List of Photographs	446
Index	449