

Contents

	The Teacher Development Series	v
	Introduction to Inside Teaching	vii
Chapter 1	Faith, guilt and doing the right thing: Theory applied and theory discovered	1
Chapter 2	Into the inner sanctum: Teachers and terminology	16
Chapter 3	On the inside looking in: Collaborative classroom research	28
Chapter 4	Learning to speak or speaking to learn? The role of mistakes in spoken English	43
Chapter 5	Breaking the sound barrier: Aspects of pronunciation teaching	59
Chapter 6	The glamour of grammar and the brass tacks of syntax: Some views of the significance of grammar	76
Chapter 7	What's in a word? Some approaches to teaching, learning and remembering vocabulary	90
Chapter 8	Scanning the horizon: Reflections on reading in a foreign language	107
Chapter 9	Hear and now: Listening in the classroom	127
Chapter 10	Write on: Some thoughts on teaching writing	143
Chapter 11	Soft chairs and silence: Humanistic approaches	158
Chapter 12	Ten years' experience or one year experienced ten times? Looking back and looking forward	168
	Index	175