

Contents

Part I The Principle of Proportionality and Fundamental Rights
Proportionality as a Universal Human Rights Principle.....	3
Jan Sieckmann
Proportionality in Social Rights Adjudication: Making It Workable .....	25
Laura Clérico
Gains and Losses in Balancing Social Rights .....	49
David Duarte
Proportionality in Its Narrow Sense and Measuring the Intensity of Restrictions on Fundamental Rights .....	71
Jorge Silva Sampaio
Conflicts Between Fundamental Rights Norms .....	111
Luka Burazin
Part II Proportionality, Balancing and Legal Principles
Consistency in Balancing: From Value Assessments to Factor-Based Rules .....	121
Giovanni Sartor
Balancing Principles and A Fortiori Reasoning .....	137
Pedro Moniz Lopes
Some Fundamental Problems Concerning Alexy's Notion of Legal Principles .....	157
Rúben Ramião
Some Thoughts About the Limits of Alexy's Conception of Principles and Balancing .....	171
David Martínez-Zorrilla	