

CONTENTS

	Part I Searching for the Policy Drivers of ODA	1
1	Introduction	3
1	What the Study is About—The Main Questions Posed	4
2	Analytical Frameworks	9
3	Methods and Main Sources	15
4	Organization	16
	References	21
	Part II International ODA Targets, Their Follow-Up and Real Value to Recipients	23
2	The Evolving International Volume Targets	25
1	The Origin and First Version of the 1% Target	25
2	OECD Takes Command	27
3	The Volume Targets of Subsequent UN Development Decades	28
4	The Millennium Development Goals and the ODA Volume Target	31
	References	38

3	The Follow-Up on the 0.7% Target: A Bird's-Eye Perspective	41
1	The First UN Development Decade	41
2	The Second UN Development Decade	42
3	The Third Development Decade	43
4	The Fourth Development Decade	44
5	Into the Present Century	46
6	Major Trends	49
	References	52
4	What is the Real Value of ODA to Recipients?	53
1	The Definition of ODA	55
2	The Forms of Development Assistance: Multilateral Assistance in Particular	56
3	Grants, Credits and the Grant Element of ODA	59
4	Tying of ODA	60
	References	67
Part III	ODA Targets and Policy Determinants: the Frontrunners and the Western Hegemon	69
5	Denmark: The Pragmatic Frontrunner	71
1	The Beginning	72
2	Volume Targets and Their Follow-Up	75
3	Main Justifications for the Provision of ODA: Stated Purposes, Objectives and Principles	80
4	Concern for Danish Economic Interests	84
5	Consensus-Seeking	87
6	Opinion Polls Impact on Policies—But Not Necessarily Decisively	88
7	ODA as a Foreign Policy Instrument: Active Internationalism in the 1990s and International Activism in the New Century	89
8	Denmark's Aid Policy: Mainly Driven by Values? Extracts from the Discourse	91
9	Summing Up	93
	References	116

6	Norway: Altruism under Strain	121
1	The Beginning—Foreign Policy Traditions and First Steps	122
2	Volume Targets and Their Follow-Up	128
3	Stated Purposes, Objectives and Guidelines—And Their Follow-Up	131
4	A Concern for Norwegian Interests—Business Interests in Particular	137
5	Human Rights and the Environment—International Common Goods	139
6	Public Education and Information on Development Challenges	143
7	Norwegian Aid Policy: Mainly Driven by Values—Solidarity and Humanism? Extracts from the Discourse	145
8	Summing Up	149
	References	179
7	Sweden: Combining Domestic Values with Neutralism	187
1	The Beginning—Foreign Policy Traditions and Early Steps	189
2	Attaining and Maintaining the Volume Target	194
3	The Stated Purpose, Objectives and Guidelines	197
4	A Concern for Sweden's Own Interests—Business Interests in Particular	206
5	Human Rights and the Environment—International Common Goods	211
6	Support for Domestic Education and Information—And the Evolving Public Opinion	213
7	Swedish Aid Policy: Mainly Driven by Values—Solidarity and Humanism? Extracts from the Discourse	216
8	Summing Up	222
	References	247
8	The Netherlands: Merchant and Clergyman	253
1	The Beginning—Foreign Policy Traditions and Early Aid Policy	254
2	Volume Targets and Follow-Up Action	258
3	Main Justifications, Purposes, Objectives and Guidelines	263
4	A Concern for Dutch Interests—Business Interests in Particular	269

5	Human Rights and the Environment	272
6	Public Opinion, Public Education and Development Assistance	274
7	Dutch Aid Policy: Mainly Driven by the Values of Solidarity and Humanism? Extracts from the Discourse	276
8	Summing Up	277
	References	298
9	The United States: The Realist	303
1	Foreign Policy Traditions and the Heyday of US Development Assistance Policy	303
2	Volume Targets and Actual Performance	308
3	ODA as a Foreign Policy Instrument	309
4	The Compartmentalization of ODA: Fragmentation of the "National Interest" as Well?	311
5	ODA and Domestic Economic Interests: The Case of Food Aid	312
6	The Development Constituency	317
7	The Legacies, Public Opinion and Political Leadership in the Promotion of ODA	318
8	Summing Up: The Main Determinants	320
	References	336
Part IV	Analysis and Conclusions	341
10	The Drivers of ODA: What Can They Tell About the Future?	343
1	The Colonial Legacy and the Aid Policy of European Imperial Powers	346
2	Prime Domestic Drivers of International Development Assistance	351
3	Foreign Policy and Security Concerns	355
4	Global and Regional Cooperation	357
5	Changes in the International and Domestic Political and Economic Environments	361
6	Intra-state Violent Conflicts, Refugees and Failed States	361
7	The US—The Realist	363

8	What Can Be Learned from the Frontrunners?	365
9	Implications for the Theory of International Relations	367
10	What of the Future?	369
	References	380
	Glossary	385
	Appendices	391
	Some Major Works on Development and Development Cooperation by the Present Author	407
	Index	409
	The relative performance of the frontrunners as a share of the DAC total and in USD billions, 1960-2011, 2017 and 2018 (average index and exchange rates)	39
	Indices for relative performance of DAC member countries' development assistance, 1960-2015 (ODA as a percentage of GDP/GNI)	392
	ODA as a share of GDP/GNI for DAC countries, 1965-2016 (USD or local currencies) (exchange rates)	398
	The relationship between the relative ODA performance of DAC member countries and their relative economic strength, 1960-2015	396
	The development of the DAC countries' ODA, 1960-2015 (percentages)	398
	The evolution of ODA commitments and the grant element of total ODA commitments	400
	World and ODA of DAC countries for selected years, 1970-2015 (as a share of GDP/GNI and market)	401
	The world's total ODA for selected years, 1975-1990 (percentages)	403
	The evolution of the bilateral ODA of DAC and the industrialized world, 1960-2015 (percentages)	405