

Contents

	Preface: Religion and Race	ix
1	Why Do African Americans Pray So Often?	1
2	So Rooted a Past: Slavery and African American Protestant Religious Tradition	31
3	The Apostles' Creed: Racial Similarities in Commitments to Core Christian Tenets	48
4	Learning and Burning: Racial Differences in "Academic" versus "Experiential" Models of Christianity	57
5	Religious Convictions: Everyday Faith-Based Actions and Beliefs	86
6	Shaded Morality: Not So Black and White	111
7	Far-Reaching Faith: Evidence of an Inclusive Religious Doctrine	133
8	Reconciling the Race Problem: Identity Politics and the Gulf between Black and White Protestants	168
	Epilogue: The Race Problem and Beloved Community	199
	Appendix A: Sampling Procedures / Sample Characteristics	209
	Appendix B: Descriptive Tables	215
	Appendix C: Interview Guides	235
	Notes	239
	References	253
	Index	271
	About the Authors	279