

CONTENTS

Preface	xxv
New to this edition	xxvi
Table of cases	xxvii
Table of statutes	lxxviii
Table of statutory instruments	ci
Table of treaties and conventions	cv
Table of European secondary legislation	cvi
Table of references to the FCA Handbook	cviii
Table of references to the UK Corporate Governance Code	cx
Abbreviations	cxii

PART 1 INTRODUCTION

1 INTRODUCTION

1.1 What this book is about	3
1.1.1 The legal concept of a company	3
1.1.2 The big idea	3
1.1.3 Other main themes	3
1.2 What is in the rest of this chapter	5
1.3 Incorporation	5
1.3.1 The nature of incorporation and legal personality	5
1.3.2 Types of corporation	7
1.3.3 Corporation tax	9
1.4 Other legal forms for businesses	9
1.4.1 Partnership	9
1.4.2 Unincorporated associations	11
1.4.3 Sole proprietorship	11
1.5 Sources of company law	11
1.5.1 Legislation	11
1.5.2 Case law	17
1.5.3 European law	21
1.5.4 Other rules	25
1.5.5 Practitioners' books and other literature	26
1.6 Purpose of company law	26
1.6.1 Service to business	26
1.6.2 Is company law suited to all users?	27
1.6.3 Mandatory and default rules	28
1.6.4 The company's position in society	29
1.7 Morality, economics, democracy, and company law	35

PART 2 ESTABLISHMENT

2	REGISTRATION	41
2.1	What is in this chapter	41
2.2	Registration procedure	42
2.2.1	Formation and registration of a company	42
2.2.2	Registration and certificate of incorporation	46
2.2.3	Lawful purpose of formation	47
2.2.4	Company formation agents	48
2.2.5	Companies formed and registered under the former Companies Acts	48
2.3	Classification of companies	49
2.3.1	Five types of company	49
2.3.2	Limited or unlimited companies and share capital	50
2.3.3	Private or public companies	57
2.4	Company names	59
2.4.1	Introduction	59
2.4.2	Indication of limited liability and company type	60
2.4.3	Omission of 'limited' from the name of a limited company	60
2.4.4	Permitted characters	60
2.4.5	Illegal or offensive names	60
2.4.6	Words requiring permission	61
2.4.7	Existing corporations and limited partnerships	61
2.4.8	Passing off	62
2.4.9	Company names adjudicators	63
2.4.10	Use of a business name other than the corporate name	64
2.4.11	Use of an insolvent company's name	64
2.4.12	Change of name	64
2.5	Registered office	66
2.5.1	Domicile	66
2.5.2	Address	67
2.6	Re-registration to change the classification of a company	67
2.6.1	Introduction	67
2.6.2	Change from being a public company	68
2.6.3	Change from being a private company limited by shares	69
2.6.4	Change from being a private company limited by guarantee	69
2.6.5	Change from being a hybrid private company	70
2.6.6	Change from being an unlimited company	70
2.6.7	Common procedural provisions	70
2.7	Quasi-partnership companies	71
2.8	Numbers of companies	73
2.9	European public limited-liability companies and single-member companies	73
3	ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION	75
3.1	What is in this chapter	75
3.2	Constitution	76
3.2.1	Constitution and constitutional documents under CA 2006	76
3.2.2	Before CA 2006	76
3.2.3	Unanimous shareholders' agreement	77

3.3	Content of articles of association	77
3.3.1	Model articles	77
3.3.2	Content of model articles	78
3.3.3	Content of alternative articles	79
3.3.4	Construction	79
3.4	Effect of articles	80
3.4.1	Contractual analysis of companies	80
3.4.2	Articles as a contract between the company and its members	82
3.4.3	Articles as a contract between the company's members	90
3.4.4	Deemed notice	92
3.5	Amendment of articles	93
3.5.1	Power to amend	93
3.5.2	Notification of amendment	94
3.6	Restrictions on amendment of articles	95
3.6.1	Statutory restrictions	95
3.6.2	Restrictions imposed by the company itself or its members	95
3.6.3	Restrictions imposed by the court under statutory powers	96
3.6.4	Restrictions imposed by contract	96
3.6.5	Limits of majority rule	96
3.7	Amendment of articles which are terms of another contract	101
3.8	Restricted objects	102
3.8.1	Option to restrict objects of company	102
3.8.2	Ultra vires transactions beyond a company's restricted objects	102
3.8.3	Substratum	103
3.8.4	An action may be ultra vires for some purposes but not for others	103
3.8.5	Implied powers for incidental purposes	104
3.8.6	Main objects	107
3.8.7	Separate-objects provisions and express powers	108
4	TRANSPARENCY	110
4.1	What is in this chapter	110
4.2	Information at Companies House	111
4.2.1	Provision of information to the registrar	111
4.2.2	Inspection of information at Companies House	112
4.2.3	Liability for errors in the register	113
4.2.4	Removal of inaccurate or superfluous information	113
4.2.5	Confirmation statements	114
4.3	Public notice of receipt of documents	116
4.4	Company registers and documents	117
4.4.1	General requirements	117
4.4.2	Registers and documents that may be inspected by any person	118
4.4.3	Documents that may be inspected by members and creditors only	121
4.4.4	Documents and records that may be inspected by members only	121
4.4.5	Records that may be inspected by officers only	122
4.5	Trading disclosures	122
4.5.1	Identification of a company	122
4.5.2	Using an incorrect name: effect on validity of transaction	122
4.5.3	Directors	123
4.5.4	Insolvency	123
4.5.5	Charitable companies	124

5 CORPORATE PERSONALITY	125
5.1 What is in this chapter	125
5.2 Effects of separate corporate personality	126
5.2.1 Salomon's case	126
5.2.2 A company's business is its business	127
5.2.3 Members of a company have no interest in its property	128
5.2.4 Members of a company cannot sue on its behalf	129
5.2.5 A company may contract with its members	129
5.2.6 A company survives the death of its members	130
5.2.7 Detriment of members	130
5.3 Piercing the corporate veil	131
5.3.1 Ways of avoiding effects of separate corporate personality	131
5.3.2 Statutory provisions	133
5.3.3 Contract	134
5.3.4 Agency	134
5.3.5 Property held in trust	137
5.3.6 Concealing or evading liability	137
5.3.7 Future of veil piercing	141
5.4 Connections between a company and other persons	142
5.4.1 Introduction	142
5.4.2 Determining legal status	142
5.4.3 Exercise of judicial discretion	143
5.4.4 Judicial bias	144
5.4.5 Standing to claim judicial review	145
5.4.6 Control of a company's property	145
5.4.7 Groups of companies	147
5.5 Corporate law theory	150
5.5.1 Introduction	150
5.5.2 Criticism of artificial separate personality	150
5.5.3 The concession theory	154
5.5.4 Economists and contractarians	155
5.5.5 What influence does theory have?	157
5.6 Company linguistics	158
5.6.1 Company singular or plural?	158
5.6.2 Persons and individuals	158
5.7 Companies' human rights	159
PART 3 FINANCE
6 SHARES	163
6.1 What is in this chapter	163
6.2 Shares and membership rights	164
6.2.1 Nominal value and share premium	164
6.2.2 Membership rights	165
6.2.3 Public notification of membership rights	165
6.2.4 Particular types of shares	166
6.2.5 Shares as things in action	167

6.2.6	Nationality of shareholders	168
6.2.7	No par value shares	169
6.3	Allotment	169
6.3.1	Issue and allotment	169
6.3.2	Contracts of allotment	170
6.3.3	Options and convertibles	171
6.3.4	Authorisation of share issues	171
6.3.5	Pre-emption rights	172
6.3.6	Return of allotment and statement of capital	174
6.3.7	Share certificates	175
6.3.8	Failure to carry out a contract of allotment	175
6.4	Principles of accounting	175
6.4.1	Introduction	175
6.4.2	Balance sheets	175
6.4.3	Depreciation and revaluation	176
6.4.4	Profit and loss account	177
6.5	Timing and size of the capital contribution	177
6.5.1	Discounts, commission, and brokerage	177
6.5.2	Partly paid shares	178
6.5.3	Payment in instalments	180
6.5.4	Share premium	180
6.5.5	Ways of measuring share capital	181
6.6	Form of contribution	181
6.6.1	Common forms of capital contribution	181
6.6.2	Vendor consideration issues	182
6.6.3	Meaning of 'subscription'	182
6.6.4	Valuation of non-cash assets	182
6.6.5	Promises to perform services and future undertakings	183
6.6.6	Exemption from liability to company	184
6.7	Minimum capital of a public company	184
6.7.1	Company initially registered as public	184
6.7.2	Private company re-registered as public	185
6.8	Remedies of a wronged allottee	185
6.8.1	Introduction	185
6.8.2	Rescission for misrepresentation	186
6.8.3	Attribution of misrepresentations to a company	186
6.8.4	Limitations on the statements on which rescission may be grounded	187
6.8.5	Loss of the remedy of rescission	188
6.8.6	Damages	189
6.9	Alteration of share capital	190
6.9.1	Permitted ways of altering share capital	190
6.9.2	Subdivision and consolidation	191
6.9.3	Reconversion of stock into shares	191
6.9.4	Redenomination	191
6.9.5	Reduction of capital in connection with redenomination	192
7	OFFERING SHARES TO THE PUBLIC	193
7.1	What is in this chapter	193
7.2	Financial Services and Markets Act 2000	194

7.2.1	Financial Conduct Authority	194
7.2.2	Regulated activities, authorised persons, exempt persons	195
7.3	Marketplaces for shares	195
7.3.1	Intermediaries	195
7.3.2	Investment exchanges	196
7.3.3	The London Stock Exchange	196
7.3.4	Regulatory regimes for securities markets	197
7.3.5	Circumstances in which an application for admission to trading may be made	201
7.3.6	Going public	201
7.4	Prospectuses	202
7.4.1	Principle	202
7.4.2	Details	203
7.4.3	Content of a prospectus	204
7.4.4	Supplementary prospectus	204
7.4.5	Exemptions from the prospectus requirement	205
7.4.6	FCA sanctions	207
7.4.7	Restriction on public offers by private companies	208
7.5	Misleading statements and omissions in prospectuses	208
7.5.1	Introduction	208
7.5.2	Misrepresentation and omission	209
7.5.3	Responsibility for prospectuses	209
7.5.4	Defences in relation to misrepresentations and omissions	210
7.5.5	Failure to issue supplements	211
7.5.6	Persons to whom compensation is payable	211
7.6	Official listing	212
7.6.1	General description	212
7.6.2	Application for admission	213
7.6.3	Listing principles	215
7.6.4	FCA sanctions	215
7.7	Investment advertisements	216
7.8	Underwriting and commissions	217
7.8.1	Commissions for finding subscribers or underwriting new issues	217
7.8.2	Definition of underwriting	218
7.8.3	Payment of underwriting commission	218
7.8.4	Methods of payment	218
7.8.5	Underwriting firm	218
7.8.6	Commissions for introducing subscribers	219
7.9	Inadequate response	219
8	TRANSFER OF SHARES	220
8.1	What is in this chapter	220
8.2	Share certificates; uncertificated shares	221
8.2.1	Description	221
8.2.2	Estoppel	222
8.3	Transfer procedures	223
8.3.1	Instrument of transfer	223
8.3.2	Transfer of certificated shares	224
8.3.3	Transfer of uncertificated shares	225
8.3.4	Directors' approval, restrictions on transfer, and pre-emption rights	228
8.3.5	Stamp duty reserve tax and stamp duty	230

8.4	Forged or fraudulent transfers	231
8.5	Transmission of shares	232
8.6	Share warrants	232
8.7	Third-party interests in shares	233
8.7.1	No notice to company of third-party interests	233
8.7.2	Stop notices	234
8.7.3	Stop orders	234
8.7.4	Interim charging orders	234
8.8	Takeovers	234
8.8.1	Takeovers and the City Code	234
8.8.2	Squeeze-out and sell-out	238
8.8.3	Overriding takeover barriers	244
8.8.4	Takeovers by share exchange	245
8.8.5	Takeover induced by misrepresentation	246
8.9	Public company's inquiry into share ownership	246
8.9.1	Need to identify owners of shares	246
8.9.2	Company's notice requiring information	246
8.9.3	Register of interests disclosed	248
8.9.4	Members' requisition of investigation of share ownership	248
8.9.5	Freezing orders	249
8.10	Notification of major shareholdings	250
8.11	People with significant control	250
8.11.1	Introduction	250
8.11.2	Significant control	250
8.11.3	Registering indirect control	251
8.11.4	PSC register	251
8.11.5	Statement of initial significant control	252
8.11.6	Investigation and disclosure	252
9	ACCOUNTS	253
9.1	What is in this chapter	253
9.2	Financial Reporting Council	255
9.3	Accounting records	255
9.3.1	Every company must keep accounting records	255
9.3.2	Preservation of records	255
9.3.3	Access to accounting records	256
9.4	Reporting requirements for various classes of company	256
9.4.1	Classes	256
9.4.2	Qualifying conditions	257
9.4.3	Benefits	257
9.4.4	Excluded companies	258
9.4.5	Small and medium-sized groups	258
9.4.6	Small companies and subsidiary companies exemption from audit	259
9.4.7	Dormant companies	259
9.5	Annual accounts and reports	260
9.5.1	Annual accounts, individual and group	260
9.5.2	Accounting reference periods and financial years	261
9.5.3	Strategic report and directors' report	261
9.5.4	Directors' remuneration report	262

9.5.5 Auditor's report	262
9.5.6 Annual accounts and reports	263
9.5.7 Form and content of annual accounts	263
9.5.8 'True and fair view'	266
9.6 Distribution, filing, and publication of annual accounts and reports	267
9.6.1 Sending annual accounts and reports to members	267
9.6.2 Wider publication of publicly traded company's accounts	268
9.6.3 Laying annual accounts before general meeting of public company	269
9.6.4 Delivery of accounts and reports to Companies House	269
9.6.5 Period allowed for filing annual accounts and reports	270
9.6.6 Exemption for unlimited companies	271
9.6.7 Small companies	271
9.6.8 Publication of accounts	272
9.7 Half-yearly reports	273
9.8 Group accounts	273
9.8.1 Group accounts of a parent company	273
9.8.2 Parent and subsidiary undertakings; group undertakings	273
9.8.3 Effect on individual accounts	275
9.8.4 Exemption for subgroups	275
9.8.5 Exemption for small groups	275
9.8.6 Subsidiaries that may be excluded from group accounts	276
9.8.7 Information about related undertakings	276
9.9 Contents of strategic report and directors' report	276
9.9.1 Introduction	276
9.9.2 Strategic report	277
9.9.3 Corporate governance statement	278
9.9.4 Directors' report	279
9.9.5 Directors' responsibility statement	281
9.10 Revision and external review of accounts and reports	282
9.11 Reports on payment practices and performance	283
10 DISTRIBUTIONS AND THE MAINTENANCE OF CAPITAL	284
10.1 What is in this chapter	284
10.2 General principle	285
10.3 Distributions	286
10.3.1 Dividends	286
10.3.2 Restrictions on dividends	288
10.3.3 Profits available for distribution	288
10.3.4 Realised and unrealised profits	288
10.3.5 Distributions in kind	289
10.3.6 Public companies	289
10.3.7 Investment companies	290
10.3.8 Accounts justifying a distribution	290
10.3.9 Consequences of an excessive distribution	291
10.4 Capitalisations and bonus shares	292
10.5 Redeemable shares	292
10.5.1 Description	292
10.5.2 Redemption premium	293
10.5.3 Making a payment out of capital	293

10.6	Purchase of own shares	295
10.6.1	Authority to repurchase shares	295
10.6.2	Financing repurchase	296
10.6.3	Authority for market purchases	296
10.6.4	Authority for off-market purchases	296
10.6.5	Publicity for purchases	297
10.6.6	Treasury shares	297
10.6.7	Cancellation of repurchased shares	298
10.6.8	Exceptions to the prohibition on acquiring own shares	298
10.6.9	Holding shares in a holding company	298
10.7	Reduction of capital	299
10.7.1	Power to reduce	299
10.7.2	Reduction of capital supported by solvency statement	300
10.7.3	Reduction of capital confirmed by the court	301
10.7.4	Interests of creditors	302
10.7.5	Treatment of different classes	302
10.7.6	Procedure	303
10.7.7	Alerting members to a serious loss of capital	304
10.8	Financial assistance for purchase of own shares	304
10.8.1	Prohibition on assistance by public company for purchase of own shares	304
10.8.2	Penalties	307
10.8.3	Restrictions and disclosure	308
10.9	Exemptions for employees' share schemes	309
11	BORROWING AND SECURITY	311
11.1	What is in this chapter	311
11.2	Security for financial obligations	312
11.2.1	Security contracts	312
11.2.2	Types of security contract	312
11.2.3	Redemption	314
11.2.4	Realisation	315
11.3	Registration of non-possessory security contracts	316
11.4	Priorities	317
11.5	Recourse	317
11.5.1	Right to sell	317
11.5.2	Exercise of the section 101 power of sale	318
11.5.3	Right to take possession	318
11.5.4	Right to appoint a receiver of income	319
11.5.5	Right to foreclosure	319
11.5.6	Right to sue for performance of the obligation	319
11.6	Floating charges	320
11.6.1	Definition of floating charge	320
11.6.2	More than one charge on the same property	321
11.6.3	Appointment of an administrator, administrative receiver, or receiver	321
11.6.4	Crystallisation	323
11.6.5	Rights conferred by a floating charge before crystallisation	324
11.6.6	Determining whether a charge is fixed or floating	327
11.6.7	Avoidance of a floating charge securing a debt incurred before the charge was created	329

11.7	Registration of charges on company property	331
11.7.1	Introduction	331
11.7.2	Registration at Companies House	331
11.7.3	Effect of failure to register	332
11.7.4	Registration procedure	333
11.7.5	Registration of a charge does not give notice of the terms of the charge	333
11.7.6	Certificate of registration	334
11.7.7	Registration of further information	334
11.7.8	Inspection of the register	335
11.7.9	Extension of time limits and rectification of the register	335
11.7.10	Problems in deciding whether an interest should be registered	337
11.7.11	Rights not created by the company	337
11.7.12	Do the rights constitute a charge?	337
11.7.13	Charges that are exempt from registration	341
11.7.14	Registration in property registers	342
11.7.15	Company must keep copies for inspection	342
11.7.16	Registration of floating charges in Scotland	342
12	MARKETABLE LOANS	343
12.1	What is in this chapter	343
12.2	Stock	344
12.3	Trustees	344
12.4	Stock certificates	344
12.5	Contracts for the allotment of debt securities	345
12.6	Information for debenture holders	345
12.7	Convertibles	345
12.8	Meetings	346
12.9	Prospectuses and listing particulars	347
12.9.1	Prospectuses	347
12.9.2	Listing particulars for the Professional Securities Market	347
13	MARKET ABUSE	349
13.1	What is in this chapter	349
13.1.1	Concept of market abuse	349
13.1.2	Laws controlling market abuse	350
13.1.3	Objections to control of insider dealing	351
13.2	Regulatory control of market abuse	351
13.2.1	General description	351
13.2.2	Qualifying investments	351
13.2.3	Prescribed markets	352
13.2.4	Geographical jurisdiction	352
13.2.5	Insider dealing as market abuse	352
13.2.6	Market manipulation as market abuse	355
13.2.7	Statutory exceptions	357
13.2.8	Reporting and investigation	357
13.2.9	Sanctions	357
13.3	Disclosure to regulated markets	359
13.3.1	Disclosure rules	359
13.3.2	Disclosure by an issuer of inside information	359

13.3.3	Insider lists	360
13.3.4	Notification of transactions by PDMRs and connected persons	360
13.3.5	Other markets	361
13.4	Model Code for Listed Companies	361
13.5	Offence of insider dealing	362
13.5.1	Introduction	362
13.5.2	Securities	362
13.5.3	Regulated markets	362
13.5.4	Definition of inside information	363
13.5.5	Having information as an insider	364
13.5.6	Restrictions on insiders	364
13.5.7	Use of market information	367
13.5.8	Penalties	367
13.5.9	Investigation	367
13.6	Offence of creating a false market	368
13.6.1	Introduction	368
13.6.2	Definition of the offence	368
13.6.3	Geographical jurisdiction	368
13.6.4	Defences	368
13.7	Fiduciary duty	369

PART 4 GOVERNANCE

14	SHAREHOLDERS	375
14.1	What is in this chapter	375
14.2	Definition	376
14.3	Register of members	377
14.3.1	Companies without uncertificated shares	377
14.3.2	Companies with uncertificated shares	378
14.3.3	Effect of the register of members and rectification	380
14.4	Shareholder democracy	381
14.4.1	Decision-making by members	381
14.4.2	Written resolutions, meetings, and unanimous approval	381
14.4.3	Ordinary and special resolutions	382
14.4.4	Decisions reserved for members and decisions which need special resolutions	382
14.4.5	Whose decision is it?	384
14.5	Written resolutions of private companies	385
14.5.1	Procedure for passing a written resolution	385
14.5.2	Members' right to have their resolutions proposed	386
14.6	Meetings	386
14.6.1	Technical rules	386
14.6.2	General and class meetings	387
14.6.3	Special rules for traded companies	387
14.6.4	Need for personal attendance	387
14.6.5	Attendance by proxy or corporate representative	388
14.7	Annual general meetings	388
14.7.1	Requirement to hold annual general meetings	388
14.7.2	Business of an annual general meeting	389
14.7.3	Annual general meetings and shareholder relations	389

14.8	Notice of meetings	391
14.8.1	Introduction	391
14.8.2	Who may give notice?	391
14.8.3	Who should be given notice and how?	391
14.8.4	Length of notice	392
14.8.5	How notice is to be given	393
14.8.6	Effect of failure to give notice; waiver of notice	393
14.8.7	Contents of notice and circulars	394
14.8.8	Membership after notice of a meeting	396
14.8.9	Notice of special resolution	396
14.8.10	Special notice	397
14.8.11	Members' statement concerning business of meeting	397
14.8.12	Members' proposals and agenda items for annual general meeting	398
14.8.13	Website publication of audit concerns in relation to quoted company	399
14.8.14	Request by members for meeting	399
14.8.15	Court's power to order meetings	400
14.9	Quorum and chair	401
14.9.1	Quorum	401
14.9.2	Single-member meetings	402
14.9.3	Chair	402
14.10	Voting	403
14.10.1	Right to vote	403
14.10.2	Method of voting	404
14.10.3	Conflict of interest and duty when voting	407
14.10.4	Voting bona fide for the benefit of the company and for a proper purpose	408
14.10.5	Ultra vires , fraudulent, or oppressive resolutions	409
14.10.6	Further reading	411
14.10.7	Voting agreements	412
14.11	Adjournment of meetings	412
14.12	Records of resolutions, meetings, and decisions	413
14.12.1	Company's records	413
14.12.2	Sole member's decisions	413
14.12.3	Registration of resolutions	413
14.13	Decision-making without meeting or written resolution	414
14.13.1	Unanimous assent	414
14.13.2	Assent given as directors	416
14.13.3	Acquiescence	416
14.13.4	Procedural requirements	417
14.13.5	Juridical basis	418
14.13.6	Only one member	419
14.14	Alteration of class rights	419
14.14.1	Class rights	419
14.14.2	Variation of class rights	420
14.15	Holding and subsidiary companies	422
14.16	Authorisation of political donations	424
14.16.1	Introduction	424
14.16.2	Donations and expenditure for which an authorising resolution is required	425
14.16.3	Donees covered	425
14.16.4	Authorisation of political donations	425

14.16.5	Political expenditure	426
14.16.6	Authorising resolution	426
14.16.7	Lawfulness of donations	427
14.16.8	Remedies for breach of prohibitions	427
15	DIRECTORS	428
15.1	What is in this chapter	428
15.2	Directors and corporate governance	429
15.2.1	Introduction	429
15.2.2	The UK Corporate Governance Code	430
15.2.3	Executive and non-executive directors	430
15.2.4	Two-tier boards	431
15.2.5	Shareholder primacy	432
15.2.6	Separation of ownership and control	433
15.2.7	Rise of the large institutional shareholder	434
15.3	Definitions	436
15.3.1	Interpretation of 'director' in legislation	436
15.3.2	De jure and de facto directors	436
15.3.3	Shadow directors	436
15.3.4	Corporate directors	437
15.4	Minimum number of directors	438
15.5	Appointment of directors	439
15.5.1	Who appoints?	439
15.5.2	First directors	439
15.5.3	Subsequent directors	440
15.5.4	Disqualification	441
15.5.5	Defective appointments	442
15.5.6	Alternate directors	443
15.5.7	Nominee directors	444
15.5.8	Share qualification	444
15.5.9	Gender diversity	444
15.6	Termination of office	444
15.6.1	Vacation of office deemed by the articles	444
15.6.2	Retirement by rotation	445
15.6.3	Dismissal from office	445
15.6.4	Resignation	448
15.6.5	Disputes about who holds office as a director	448
15.7	Transparency	449
15.7.1	Registers	449
15.7.2	Notification to Companies House and in the Gazette	449
15.7.3	Residential addresses	450
15.7.4	Listed companies	451
15.8	The board of directors	452
15.8.1	General legal principles	452
15.8.2	Decision-making in private companies under the model articles	453
15.8.3	Decision-making in public companies	453
15.8.4	Directors' meetings	454
15.8.5	Executive directors; managing director	456
15.8.6	Managing director and chairman	457
15.8.7	Committees	457

15.9	Remuneration	458
15.9.1	Remuneration	458
15.9.2	Payments for loss of office	461
15.9.3	Disclosure in accounts of payments to directors	462
15.9.4	Inspection and approval of directors' service contracts	465
15.10	Powers of management	466
15.10.1	Division of power between members and directors	466
15.10.2	Directors' general power of management	467
15.10.3	Power to litigate	471
15.10.4	Powers conferred on directors by articles other than an article conferring a general power of management	472
15.10.5	Powers exercisable only by the members	473
15.10.6	Approval by members of a listed company's large-scale transaction	473
15.10.7	Reversion of powers to the members	473
15.11	Legal categorisation of directors	474
15.12	Directors are not agents of members	475
16	DIRECTORS' DUTIES	476
16.1	What is in this chapter	476
16.2	Codification of directors' general duties	477
16.3	Fiduciary duty	478
16.3.1	Equitable principles on which statutory duties are based	478
16.3.2	Directors as fiduciaries	478
16.3.3	Duty owed to company only	479
16.3.4	Should directors be subject to fiduciary duties?	480
16.4	Shadow and de facto directors	480
16.5	Duty to act within powers	481
16.5.1	Statutory duty	481
16.5.2	Equitable principle on which statutory duty is based	481
16.5.3	Power to allot shares	483
16.5.4	Response to takeover bids	484
16.5.5	Other powers	485
16.6	Duty to promote the success of the company	486
16.6.1	Statutory duty	486
16.6.2	Equitable principle on which statutory duty is based	487
16.6.3	What is the test?	487
16.6.4	Success of the company	488
16.6.5	Benefit of the members	489
16.6.6	Other constituencies	490
16.6.7	Interests of employees	492
16.6.8	Social, environmental, and ethical considerations	492
16.6.9	Interests of creditors	493
16.6.10	Interests of persons for whom the company is a fiduciary	495
16.6.11	Duty to take into account all material considerations	495
16.6.12	Conflict of interests	496
16.6.13	Obligation to disclose misconduct	496
16.7	Duty to exercise independent judgement	497
16.7.1	Statutory duty	497
16.7.2	Equitable principle on which statutory duty is based	498

16.8	Duty to exercise reasonable care, skill, and diligence	498
16.8.1	Statutory duty	498
16.8.2	Common law rules and equitable principles on which statutory duty is based	499
16.8.3	Knowledge of the company's business	499
16.8.4	Reliance on company officials and others	500
16.8.5	Attendance to the company's affairs	501
16.9	Duty to avoid conflicts of interest	502
16.9.1	Statutory duty	502
16.9.2	Equitable principle on which statutory duty is based	503
16.9.3	Nominee directors	503
16.9.4	Corporate opportunity doctrine	504
16.9.5	Competing directorships	509
16.10	Duty not to accept benefits from third parties	509
16.11	Duty to declare interest in proposed transaction or arrangement	510
16.11.1	Statutory duty	510
16.11.2	Equitable principle on which statutory duty is based	511
16.11.3	Prohibition on voting	512
16.12	Substantial property transactions	512
16.12.1	Statutory requirement for approval by members	512
16.12.2	Which transactions require approval?	513
16.12.3	Who must give approval?	513
16.12.4	Example	514
16.13	Loans, quasi-loans, and credit transactions	514
16.13.1	Loans and collateral: statutory requirement for approval by members	514
16.13.2	Related arrangements	515
16.13.3	Public companies: approval of other kinds of transactions	515
16.13.4	Exceptions	515
16.14	Connected persons and associated companies	516
16.15	Remedies	517
16.15.1	Introduction	517
16.15.2	Return of property and confiscation of profits	517
16.15.3	Irrelevant considerations	518
16.15.4	Relief for honest and reasonable director	518
16.15.5	Equitable allowance	518
16.15.6	Rescission	519
16.15.7	Equitable compensation	519
16.15.8	Liability for knowingly allowing breach	520
16.15.9	Limitation	520
16.15.10	Criminal liability	520
16.16	Relief from liability	520
16.16.1	Ways in which liability may be relieved	520
16.16.2	Ratification	521
16.16.3	Fully informed consent	521
16.16.4	Acts which cannot be ratified	522
16.16.5	Indemnification and exclusion of liability	523
16.16.6	Relief by the court	524
16.17	Secondary liability	525
16.17.1	Constructive trust of wrongfully disposed property	525
16.17.2	Knowing receipt or dealing	526
16.17.3	Dishonest assistance	527

17 CORPORATE OFFICERS AND PROMOTERS	528
17.1 What is in this chapter	528
17.2 Liability of officers	528
17.3 Company secretaries	529
17.3.1 Appointment and qualifications	529
17.3.2 Register and notification to Companies House	530
17.3.3 Duties	531
17.4 Auditors	531
17.4.1 Appointment and reappointment	531
17.4.2 Eligibility for appointment as a company auditor	533
17.4.3 Removal, resignation, and replacement	534
17.4.4 Remuneration	536
17.4.5 Integrity and independence	536
17.4.6 Contents of an auditor's report	538
17.4.7 Investigative powers	539
17.4.8 Quality assurance	540
17.5 Auditors' liability	540
17.5.1 Auditor's liability to the company for negligence	540
17.5.2 Auditor's liability for negligent misstatement	542
17.5.3 Liability of a company's auditor to persons contemplating buying its shares	544
17.5.4 Liability for specially commissioned report	544
17.5.5 Relief from liability	545
17.5.6 Criminal liability for inaccurate auditors' reports	546
17.6 Managers	547
17.7 Promoters	547
17.7.1 Introduction	547
17.7.2 Definition	548
17.7.3 Duties of promoters	549
17.7.4 Legitimate and wrongful profits of promoters	552
18 REMEDIES FOR MALADMINISTRATION	554
18.1 What is in this chapter	554
18.2 Action against company officers	555
18.3 The rule in Foss v Harbottle	556
18.3.1 Statement of the rule	556
18.3.2 Academic and judicial comment	557
18.3.3 Reasons for the rule	557
18.3.4 The ratifiability principle	560
18.4 Proper claimant principle	560
18.4.1 The company is the proper claimant to enforce its rights	560
18.4.2 Derivative claims	561
18.4.3 No reflective loss principle	567
18.4.4 The company is the proper claimant in a matter concerning its internal management	570
18.4.5 Claim by a member to vindicate a personal right	571
18.4.6 Ultra vires transactions	573
18.4.7 Ratifiability as the basis of the personal rights exceptions	574
18.4.8 Lawfulness of decision-making as the basis of the personal rights exceptions	575

18.5	Irregularity principle	576
18.6	Unfairly prejudicial conduct of the company's affairs	577
18.6.1	Court's power to give relief for unfairly prejudicial conduct	577
18.6.2	Who may petition?	578
18.6.3	History	579
18.6.4	Problems and proposals for reform	579
18.6.5	Meaning of 'interests of members'	581
18.6.6	Meaning of 'unfairly prejudicial'	582
18.6.7	Unwritten agreements	583
18.6.8	Examples of conduct on which a petition may be grounded	584
18.6.9	Exclusion from a quasi-partnership company	588
18.6.10	Is conduct unfairly prejudicial only if it breaches an agreement?	590
18.6.11	Orders the court may make	591
18.6.12	Interim orders	593
18.6.13	Exit rights in articles	593
18.7	Winding up	593
18.7.1	Availability of winding up as a remedy	593
18.7.2	Fraudulent promotion	595
18.7.3	Deadlock	595
18.7.4	Management and conduct of the company: oppression	596
18.7.5	Quasi-partnership companies	598
18.7.6	Further discussion	599
18.8	Company investigations	600
18.8.1	Introduction	600
18.8.2	Confidential investigation	600
18.8.3	Investigation by inspectors	601
18.8.4	Conduct of an investigation	603
18.8.5	Consequences of inspection or investigation	606
19 ACTING FOR A COMPANY: AGENCY AND ATTRIBUTION		610
19.1	What is in this chapter	610
19.2	Authentication and execution of documents	612
19.2.1	Introduction	612
19.2.2	A company's common seal	612
19.2.3	Contractual formalities	613
19.2.4	Execution of documents	613
19.2.5	Execution of deeds	614
19.2.6	Signature	614
19.2.7	Bills of exchange, cheques, and promissory notes	615
19.3	Company contracts	616
19.4	Contractual capacity	616
19.4.1	The ultra vires rule	616
19.4.2	Charitable companies	617
19.5	Authority of a company's agents	618
19.5.1	Acting under a company's authority	618
19.5.2	Actual authority	618
19.5.3	Ostensible authority	619
19.5.4	Protection of the contractor when actual authority is exceeded: common law	619
19.5.5	Protection of the contractor when actual authority is exceeded: statute	629

19.5.6	Authority of a board of directors	632
19.5.7	Ratification of acts outside actual authority	633
19.5.8	Transactions involving directors	634
19.5.9	Authority of a company secretary	635
19.5.10	Charitable companies	636
19.6	Pre-incorporation and post-dissolution contracts	636
19.6.1	Personal liability	636
19.6.2	Agreement to the contrary and novation	638
19.6.3	Further reading	639
19.7	Liabilities of principal and agent	639
19.7.1	Immunity when acting for a company	639
19.7.2	Vicarious liability for torts of employees and agents	641
19.8	Attribution by a court so as to impose liability on a company	642
19.8.1	Identification theory	642
19.8.2	Whose acts or thoughts will be attributed to a company?	643
19.8.3	When attribution will not be made	646
19.8.4	Corporate criminal liability	648
19.8.5	Double-counting; theft from a company	656
19.8.6	Further discussion of corporate criminal liability	657
19.8.7	Residence	657
19.8.8	Enemy character	659
19.8.9	Identification of religious belief	660
19.8.10	Ethnicity	661
19.9	Companies in court	661
19.9.1	Representation	661
19.9.2	Costs	662
19.9.3	Evidence	662

PART 5 INSOLVENCY AND LIQUIDATION

20	COMPANY INSOLVENCY AND LIQUIDATION	667
20.1	Introduction	667
20.1.1	Nature of company insolvency and liquidation procedures	667
20.1.2	Liquidation	668
20.1.3	Legislation on company insolvency and liquidation	668
20.1.4	Qualified insolvency practitioners	668
20.1.5	Official receivers	669
20.1.6	Contributories	669
20.1.7	Decision-making by creditors and contributories	670
20.2	Administrative receivership and floating charges	670
20.2.1	Summary description	670
20.2.2	Property acquired after crystallisation	671
20.2.3	Preferential creditors and liquidation expenses	671
20.2.4	Statutory share of assets for unsecured creditors	672
20.3	Administration	673
20.3.1	Summary description	673
20.3.2	Purpose of administration	673
20.3.3	Appointment of an administrator	674
20.3.4	Administrator's proposals	676
20.3.5	Powers of an administrator	677

20.3.6	Pre-packs	678
20.3.7	Effect on directors	678
20.3.8	Moratorium	679
20.3.9	End of administration	679
20.3.10	Priority for administration expenses	680
20.4	Voluntary arrangements	681
20.4.1	Summary description	681
20.4.2	Proposal for a voluntary arrangement	681
20.4.3	Approval of a proposal	682
20.4.4	Alternative procedure for small companies	683
20.4.5	False representation or fraud	684
20.5	Voluntary winding up	684
20.5.1	Summary description	684
20.5.2	Resolution for voluntary winding up	685
20.5.3	Declaration of solvency	685
20.5.4	Appointment of a members' liquidator	686
20.5.5	Appointment of a creditors' liquidator	686
20.5.6	Liquidation committee	686
20.6	Winding up by the court	687
20.6.1	Summary description	687
20.6.2	Circumstances in which a winding-up order may be made	687
20.6.3	Petition	687
20.6.4	Creditors' petitions	688
20.6.5	Appointment of a liquidator	689
20.6.6	Liquidation committee	690
20.6.7	Effect on directors	690
20.7	Appointment of a provisional liquidator	692
20.8	Commencement of winding up: going into liquidation	692
20.9	Investigation of the affairs of a company	692
20.9.1	Introduction	692
20.9.2	Statement of affairs	693
20.9.3	Duty to cooperate with the office-holder	694
20.9.4	Books, papers, and records	694
20.9.5	Private examination	695
20.9.6	Public examination of officers	697
20.9.7	Report to the Secretary of State on conduct of directors	698
20.9.8	Official receiver's investigation and report	699
20.9.9	Suspected criminal offences	699
20.10	Control of insolvency and liquidation procedures by the court	699
20.10.1	Application by an office-holder for directions	699
20.10.2	Application to the court by members or creditors	700
20.11	Liability for fraudulent trading	700
20.11.1	Principle	700
20.11.2	Analysis	701
20.11.3	What amounts to fraud?	702
20.11.4	Who are parties to the carrying on of the business?	703
20.11.5	Knowledge	704
20.11.6	Nature of liability	704
20.12	Wrongful trading	705
20.12.1	Principle	705
20.12.2	Dual objective/subjective standard	705

678	20.12.3	When is it wrong to trade while insolvent?	706
678	20.12.4	Taking steps to minimise potential loss	706
679	20.12.5	Examples	707
679	20.12.6	Nature of liability	708
680	20.12.7	General discussion	708
681	20.13	Directors' disqualification	709
681	20.13.1	Disqualification order	709
681	20.13.2	Grounds for disqualification	710
682	20.13.3	Disqualification undertakings	712
683	20.13.4	Application for disqualification under section 6 or 8	713
684	20.13.5	Purpose of disqualification under sections 6 and 8	713
684	20.13.6	Factors the court considers in an application under sections 6 and 8	714
684	20.13.7	Period of disqualification	719
685	20.13.8	Compensation orders	720
685	20.13.9	Leave to act during a period of disqualification	720
686	20.13.10	Variation of disqualification undertaking	721
686	20.13.11	Register of disqualification orders and undertakings	721
686	20.14	Use of insolvent company's name	722
687	20.14.1	Principle	722
687	20.14.2	Details	722
687	20.14.3	Criminal penalty	723
687	20.14.4	Civil penalty	723
688	20.14.5	Similar names suggesting association	723
689	20.14.6	Leave of court	724
690	20.14.7	Notice by successor company	724
690	20.14.8	Established use of name	725
692	20.15	Order of application of assets in liquidation	725
692	20.15.1	Principles	725
692	20.15.2	Contracting out	726
692	20.15.3	Adjusting the rights of contributories	727
693	20.15.4	Post-liquidation interest	727
694	20.15.5	Provision for employees	727
694	20.16	Dissolution	728
695	20.16.1	Introduction	728
697	20.16.2	Methods of dissolution	728
698		Report to the Secretary of State on conduct of directors	733
698		Official receiver's investigation and report	733
699		suspected criminal offences	733
699		Control of insolvency and liquidation procedures by the court	733
699		Application by an office-holder for directions	733
700		Application to the court by members or creditors	733
700		Administrative receivers	733
700		Summary description	733
700		Property acquired after crystallisation	733
701		Analysis	733
702		What amounts to fraud?	733
703		Who are parties to the carrying on of the business?	733
704		Knowledge	733
704		Nature of liability	733
705		Wrongful trading	733
705		Principle	733
705		Dual objective/subjective standard	733
705		Index	733