Section A: Technology of neurorehabilitation 1

Section A1: Outcomes measurement and diagnostic technology 3
1	Outcomes measurement: basic principles and applications in stroke rehabilitation 5
2	Human voluntary motor control and dysfunction 24
3	Assessments, interventions, and outcome measures for walking 37
4	Electromyography in neurorehabilitation 48
5	Functional neuroimaging 56

Section A2: Therapeutic technology	69	Section B: Symptom-specific neurorehabilitation	215
6 Cell transplantation therapy for Parkinson's disease Brian J. Snyder, C. Warren Olanow	71	15 Chronic pain Herta Flor, Frank Andrasik	219
7 Conditions of task practice for individuals with neurologic impairments Carolee J. Weinstein, Jill Campbell Stewart	89	16 Loss of somatic sensation Leeanne Carey	231
8 Balance training Gammon M. Earhart, Fay B. Horak	103	17 Management of spasticity David A. Gelber	248
9 Functional electrical stimulation in neurorehabilitation Peter H. Gorman, Gad Alon, P. Hunter Peckham	119	18 Arm and hand weakness Sarah Blanton, Steven L. Wolf	265
10 Environmental control and assistive devices Jessica Johnson, William C. Mann	136	19 Gait disorders and rehabilitation Volker Dietz	283
11 Wheelchair design and seating technology Rory A. Cooper, Rosemarie Cooper, Michael L. Boninger	147	20 Balance, vestibular and oculomotor dysfunction Courtney D. Hall, Susan J. Herdman	298
12 Rehabilitation robotics, orthotics, and prosthetics Hermano Igo Krebs, Neville Hogan, William K. Durfee, Hugh M. Herr	165	21 Deconditioning and energy expenditure Marilyn MacKay-Lyons	315
13 Virtual reality in neurorehabilitation Patrice L. Weiss, Rachel Kizony, Uri Feintuch, Noomi Katz	182	Section B2: Vegetative and autonomic dysfunctions	337
14 Communication devices Cheryl Y. Trepagnier, Beth Mineo Mollica, Sheela Stuart, Carole W. Brown	198	22 Rehabilitation of the comatose patient Francesco Lombardi, Antonio De Tanti	339
		23 Plasticity in the neural pathways for swallowing: role in rehabilitation of dysphagia John C. Rosenbek, Neila J. Donovan	356
		24 Autonomic dysfunction Brenda S. Mallory	368
