

■ IN BRIEF	9	Defense giants join forces; the 10 vying for 10 Downing St.
■ AGENDA	10	High stakes for Boeing in Paris; the Fed's rate decision
■ OPINION	10	The world failed Egypt in 2013. It shouldn't fail Sudan now
■ REMARKS	12	The EU's secret plan for a catastrophic Grexit
1 BUSINESS	16 19 20	Even Armani's classic style may have a shelf life Summertime and nothing is easy for Europe's airlines AstraZeneca's herbal remedy to boost Chinese growth
2 TECHNOLOGY	22 24	Drone giant DJI's down-to-earth new creation Building blocs is hard in today's interconnected world
3 FINANCE	26 28 29	Banks are safer, but there's still plenty of risky debt A small-biz tax break creates a Silicon Valley windfall The Dutch are still in no mood to forgive their bankers
4 ECONOMICS	32 34	Can AMLO's man at Pemex reverse its decline? The People's Bank of China opens up
5 POLITICS	36 38	Trump's antitrust enforcers are ready to take on Big Tech ▼ The oil-fueled dictatorship of OPEC's smallest member

	40	Germany and France play musical chairs with EU posts
+ SOLUTIONS	42 44	Stitch Fix's Netflix-style way of divining a customer's style An upstart Austrian motorcycle maker guns for Kawasaki
■ PURSUITS	63 66 67 69 70 71	Art reckons with nationalism at the Venice Biennale Uber drones may soon make fast food even faster Pendant lamps that help shape a room Lose the shoelaces and go Velcro this summer BMW adds to its great M850i by subtracting the hardtop Audemars Piguet's crack new Code 11.59 chronograph
■ LAST THING	72	Alibaba gives U.S. stock exchanges reason to worry

FEATURES

- 46 This Is No Way to Cure Cancer
The U.S. is purging ethnic Chinese scientists at top research institutions
- 52 Comcast's Youth Movement
The son of the company's CEO wants to make Philly an e-sports town
- 58 Bringing GE Back From the Brink
Larry Culp may not restore its past glory, but he might be the best hope to fix it

