

Contents

List of contributors	vii
Preface	ix
Introduction	x
1 Blockchains – perspectives and challenges Vincent Mignon	1
2 Cutting out the middleman: a case study of blockchain technology induced reconfigurations in the Swiss financial services industry Pascal Witzig and Victoriya Salomon	18
3 Aspects of private international law related to blockchain transactions Florence Guillaume	49
4 When disruptive meets streamline: international standardization in blockchain Panagiotis Delimatsis	83
5 How smart can a contract be? Blaise Carron and Valentin Botteron	101
6 Aspects of Swiss financial regulation Biba Homsy	144
7 The protection of the owners of cryptocurrencies, in particular bitcoin: selected aspects of Swiss financial market and insolvency law Olivier Hari	185
8 Perspectives of a distributed future: aspects of criminal law Nadja Capus and Maëlle Le Boudec	215
9 Blockchains: aspects of intellectual property law Daniel Kraus and Charlotte Boulay	240

10	Blockchain and data protection Adrien Alberini and Vincent Pfammatter	272
11	Tax treatment of cryptocurrency holders and miners in the era of virtual currencies from a multijurisdictional and Swiss perspective Thierry Obrist and Roland A. Pfister	299
	Index	349