

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
Acknowledgements	viii
1. Introduction Peter Borsay	1
2. Urban growth and agricultural change: England and the Continent in the early modern period E. Anthony Wrigley	39
3. Country, county and town: patterns of regional evolution in England Alan Everitt	83
4. Urban improvement and the English economy in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries E. L. Jones and M. E. Falkus	116
5. The English urban renaissance: the development of provincial urban culture c.1680–c.1760 Peter Borsay	159
6. The London 'mob' in the early eighteenth century Robert B. Shoemaker	188
7. Bath: ideology and utopia 1700–1760 R. S. Neale	223
8. Science, provincial culture and public opinion in Enlightenment England R. Porter	243

Contents

9. Money, land and lineage: the big bourgeoisie of Hanoverian London
Nicholas Rogers 268
10. Birmingham and the West Midlands 1760–1793: politics and regional identity in the English provinces in the later eighteenth century
J. Money 292
11. Social class and social geography: the middle classes in London at the end of the eighteenth century
L. D. Schwarz 315
12. Voluntary societies and British urban élites 1780–1850: an analysis
R. J. Morris 338

Select reading list

367

Index

373