

Contents

Acknowledgements	ix
Introduction: Rethinking Political Secularism: The Multiculturalist Challenge	1
I: The Racialisation of Muslims / Muslims as ‘Race Relations’ Actors	31
1 Racism, Culturalism and Cultural Racism	33
2 Ethno-Religious Assertiveness Out of Racial Equality	47
3 Maintaining Civility and the Feelings of the Hated	61
4 Islamophobia and the Struggle for Recognition	75
5 Pointing to a Multicultural Future: Rethinking Race, Ethnicity, Religion and Britishness	89
II: Multiculturalism and Secularism	115
6 Muslims, Religious Equality and Secularism	117
7 Multicultural Citizenship and the Shari’a Controversy in Britain	135
8 Moderate Secularism, Religion as Identity and Respect for Religion	145
9 Multiculturalism and the ‘Crisis of Secularism’	163
10 State-Religion Connexions and Multicultural Citizenship	179
11 Multiculturalizing Secularism	195
12 Intercultural Public Intellectual Engagement	215
Index	235

About the Author

Contents

ix	Acknowledgements
1	Introduction: Rethinking Political Secularism: The Multiculturalist Challenge
31	I: The Racialisation of Muslims \ Muslims as 'Race Relations' Actors
33	1 Racial, Culturalism and Cultural Racism
47	2 Ethno-Religious Assertiveness Out of Racial Equality
61	3 Maintaining Civility and the Feelings of the Hand
75	4 Islamophobia and the Struggle for Recognition
89	5 Pointing to a Multicultural Future: Rethinking Race, Ethnicity, Religion and Britishness
115	II: Multiculturalism and Secularism
117	6 Muslims, Religious Equality and Secularism
133	7 Multicultural Citizenship and the Shah's Controversy in Britain
145	8 Moderate Secularism, Religion as Identity and Respect for Religion
163	9 Multiculturalism and the 'Crisis of Secularism'
179	10 State-Religion Connections and Multicultural Citizenship
195	11 Multiculturalising Secularism
215	12 International Public Intellectual Engagement
235	Index