

■ IN BRIEF	5	India revokes autonomy in Kashmir; Flint ousted at HSBC
■ OPINION	6	Michael R. Bloomberg: Pass common-sense gun laws now
■ REMARKS	8	Four ways to save free trade
1 BUSINESS	13 15 16	Big Pharma shows little interest in on-demand birth control German tour company TUI navigates choppy waters China is the Cadillac of markets for Cadillac—and Lincoln
2 TECHNOLOGY	18 22	Android's remarkable path to world conquest A drone sailboat brings back climate clues from Antarctica
3 FINANCE	24 26	Powell, Trump, and Xi bang heads, investors get whiplash A money laundering crackdown creates lots of jobs
4 ECONOMICS	28 30	Capital spending takes a back seat to buybacks Vietnam's trade-war-fueled boom may make it a tariff target
5 POLITICS	32 34 35	The NRA is hobbled, but don't expect tougher gun laws California struggles to square housing and the environment ▼ The Long Campaign: Bernie bets on Medicare for All

+ SOLUTIONS	36 38	New airports in Asia aim to lure non-travelers, too Santiago plugs in to electric buses
■ PURSUITS	57 60 62 65 66 67	Want to have the best fishing trip? It's all in the guide The enduring appeal of bamboo fly rods The completely annotated Green Highlander Hairwing Swap your annual fishing trip for your own fishing ranch One man's campaign to save salmon Hobie takes the hands-free kayak in new directions
■ LAST THING	68	The pros and cons of a smoother, steadier economy

FEATURES

40

Gearing Up to Go Dark

Want to hide all your gadgets from Silicon Valley? You'll need more gadgets

46

For $500, You Can Leave Gmail Forever

All it takes is a private server from Helm. And some perseverance

50

The 26 Words That Turned the Web Into a Mess

A statute designed to clean up the internet didn't. But it did make it lucrative