

DETAILED CONTENTS

|   |          |
|---|----------|
| Introduction .....  | 1        |
| § 1. Issues .....  | 3 |
| I. Definitions .....  | 3        |
| II. Creation of Issues .....  | 6        |
| III. Resolution of Issues .....   | 7        |
| A. Frame the Issue in the Dispute.....  | 7        |
| B. Find the Facts That Pertain to the Issue.....  | 9        |
| C. Identify and Interpret, or if Necessary Create, theAuthority That Governs the Issue.....                           | 10       |
| D. Apply Law to Fact (i.e. use the authority todetermine the legal consequences of the factsof the dispute) ..... | 11       |
| IV. Identifying Issues .....  | 11       |
| A. Identifying Issues in Documents .....  | 12       |
| The College Daily. .....   | 12       |

|   |    |
|---|----|
| When Is an Offer Accepted? .....                                     | 14 |
| B. Identifying Issues in Facts.....   | 16 |
| The Coconut Cases .....  | 17 |
| V. Review .....   | 19 |
| Sally's Case .....   | 20 |
| The Case of the Research Papers .....                                | 21 |
| VI. References.....   | 21 |
| § 2. Identifying the Governing Rule of Law .....                        | 22 |
| I. Definition of a Rule of Law .....  | 23 |
| II. Identifying an Existing Rule of Law .....                               | 24 |
| The Refusal to Bargain Case .....                                    | 25 |
| A. Identifying the Governing Rule of LawUsing Precedents .....          | 28 |
| B. Identifying the Governing Rule of Law UsingAuthoritative Texts ..... | 30 |
| Two Cases of Second Thoughts .....                                   | 30 |
| Diallo's Case .....  | 31 |
| Niner's Case .....   | 32 |
| Packard Motor Car Company .....                                      | 32 |
| III. Review .....   | 33 |
| IV. References.....   | 34 |
| § 3. Levels of Abstraction .....  | 35 |
| I. Levels of Abstraction: The Basic Idea.....                               | 35 |
| II. The Definition of "Level of Abstraction" .....                          | 40 |
| A. Unrelated Issues and Levels of Abstraction.....                          | 43 |
| B. Related Issues and Levels of Abstraction .....                           | 44 |
| Ben and Gerrie's Case .....  | 46 |
| III. Why the Level of Abstraction Matters .....                             | 48 |
| Guenevere v. Arthur .....  | 53 |
| IV. Review .....  | 59 |
| Mary's Case .....  | 61 |
| Wimp v. Bully .....  | 63 |
| The Spat .....   | 64 |
| V. References.....  | 64 |

|  |    |
|--|----|
| § 4. Deduction .....   | 65 |
| I. In General .....  | 65 |
| A. Syllogisms .....  | 67 |
| B. Enthymemes .....  | 67 |
| II. Categorical Syllogisms and Quasi Syllogisms .....                          | 68 |
| A. The Major and Minor Premises Are Affirmative .....                          | 70 |
| 1. The Valid Form .....  | 70 |
| 2. The Fallacy of the Undistributed Middle .....                               | 70 |
| B. The Major Premise Is Affirmative and the MinorPremise Is Negative ..... | 72 |
| 1. The Valid Form .....  | 72 |
| 2. The Fallacy of the Illicit Major .....                                      | 73 |
| III. Hypothetical Syllogisms .....   | 74 |
| A. Modus Ponens .....  | 74 |
| 1. The Valid Form .....  | 74 |
| 2. The Fallacy of Denying the Antecedent .....                                 | 75 |
| B. Modus Tollens .....   | 76 |
| 1. The Valid Form .....  | 76 |
| 2. The Fallacy of Affirming the Consequent .....                               | 77 |
| IV. The Soundness of Syllogisms .....  | 77 |
| V. Moral Syllogisms and Legal Syllogisms .....                                 | 80 |
| A. Moral Syllogisms .....  | 80 |
| B. Legal Syllogisms .....  | 82 |
| Willie Sutton's Case .....  | 82 |
| VI. The Value of Syllogisms .....  | 83 |
| VII. Review .....  | 85 |
| § 5. Induction .....   | 88 |
| I. Inductive Generalizations .....   | 88 |
| A. The Nature of Induction .....   | 88 |
| B. Probability of Conclusions .....  | 89 |
| C. Analysis of Arguments in the Form of InductiveGeneralization .....      | 90 |
| D. Some Errors Associated with InductiveGeneralization .....               | 90 |
| 1. Hasty Generalization .....  | 91 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 2. Unrepresentative Sample.....                                      | 91  |
| 3. Vivid Counterexample.....   | 91  |
| 4. Argument Ad Hominem .....   | 92  |
| 5. Post Hoc Ergo Propter Hoc .....                                   | 93  |
| 6. Failure to Falsify Alternative Hypotheses.....                    | 93  |
| Excerpt from the Phaedo by Plato.....                         | 94  |
| II. Statistical Syllogisms .....                                     | 98  |
| A. The Nature of a Statistical Syllogism.....                        | 98  |
| B. The Force of a Statistical Syllogism .....                        | 100 |
| C. Statistical Syllogisms in Ordinary Speech .....                   | 101 |
| III. Practical Syllogisms.....                                       | 102 |
| IV. Review.....  | 103 |
| V. References.....   | 104 |
| § 6. Arguments in General.....                                   | 105 |
| I. Definition of an Argument .....                                   | 105 |
| II. Elements of an Argument.....                                     | 106 |
| Should Use of Marijuana Be Legal? .....                       | 107 |
| Katzenjammer for Congress .....                               | 109 |
| III. Recognizing Arguments .....                                     | 110 |
| IV. Incomplete Arguments .....                                       | 111 |
| V. Issues, Arguments, and Rhetoric .....                             | 112 |
| VI. Review.....  | 113 |
| § 7. Arguments Classified by Function.....                       | 114 |
| I. Arguments as to the Issue in a Case .....                         | 114 |
| Clinics v. Hospitals .....                                    | 115 |
| II. Arguments as to the Facts .....                                  | 115 |
| III. Arguments as to the Law .....                                   | 116 |
| A. Arguments as to Which Authority Governsthe Case .....         | 116 |
| Here v. There .....   | 116 |
| Round v. About .....  | 116 |
| B. Arguments as to How to Interpret theGoverning Authority ..... | 116 |
| Scarpia v. Sky .....  | 117 |
| Puss v. Boots .....   | 117 |

|       |   |     |
|-------|---|-----|
| IV.   | Arguments Applying Law to Fact .....                    | 118 |
|       | Don Juan in Hell .....                           | 118 |
| V.    | Review .....  | 119 |
|       | Jefferson Standard Broadcasting Company .....    | 119 |
| VI.   | References.....   | 121 |
| § 8.  | Arguments Based on Evidence .....                       | 122 |
| I.    | Varieties of Evidence .....                             | 122 |
| II.   | Uses of Evidence .....                                  | 123 |
| § 9.  | Policy Arguments .....                                  | 124 |
| I.    | The Nature of Policy Arguments.....                     | 125 |
|       | A. Normative Claims .....                               | 125 |
|       | 1. Values.....  | 125 |
|       | 2. Varieties of Arguments about Values .....            | 127 |
|       | 3. Sources of Values.....                               | 128 |
|       | B. Assertions of Fact.....                              | 128 |
|       | 1. Retrospective and Prospective Facts.....             | 129 |
|       | 2. Sources of Assertions of Fact .....                  | 131 |
| II.   | Uses of Policy Arguments.....                           | 131 |
|       | Lockouts .....                                   | 131 |
|       | Employees or Independent Contractors? .....      | 132 |
| III.  | Evaluating Policy Arguments .....                       | 133 |
|       | The Case of the Bargaining Order .....           | 133 |
| IV.   | Review.....   | 137 |
| V.    | References.....   | 138 |
| § 10. | Doctrinal Arguments .....                               | 139 |
| I.    | Varieties of Authority.....                             | 139 |
|       | A. Binding Authorities .....                            | 139 |
|       | B. Advisory Authorities .....                           | 141 |
| II.   | Uses of Authority .....                                 | 141 |
|       | People v. Ledfoot .....                          | 144 |
| III.  | Varieties of Doctrinal Argument .....                   | 146 |
| IV.   | Review.....   | 146 |
|       | Sure-Tan v. National Labor Relations Board ..... | 147 |
| V.    | References.....   | 149 |

|   |     |
|---|-----|
| § 11. Analogies and Precedents: The Structure and Criteria for Evaluation of Legal Analogies.....           | 150 |
| I. Analogies, Similes, and Metaphors .....  | 150 |
| A. The Nature of Analogies .....  | 150 |
| B. The Danger of Analogies.....   | 153 |
| Aspasia .....  | 153 |
| II. The Legal Analogy .....   | 154 |
| A. Differences between an Ordinary Analogy and a Legal Analogy .....  | 154 |
| B. The Structure of a Legal Analogy .....   | 156 |
| The Captain's Analogy .....  | 157 |
| C. Truncated Analogies.....   | 158 |
| 1. Failure to Demonstrate That the Facts of the Precedent Are Similar to the Facts of the Case at Bar ..... | 159 |
| The Case of Illegal Questions .....  | 159 |
| The "Phantom Analogy" .....  | 161 |
| The Seat Belt Cases .....  | 161 |
| 2. Failure to Demonstrate That the Rationale of the Precedent Applies to the Case at Bar.....               | 163 |
| Church of the Holy Trinity v. United States ...  | 163 |
| The Case of Gay Marriage .....   | 164 |
| 3. Legal Citations as Truncated Analogies .....   | 165 |
| The Case of the Second Bite .....  | 166 |
| D. The Uses of Analogies .....  | 169 |
| 1. Using an Analogy to Identify the Issue.....  | 169 |
| Ford Motor Company v. National Labor Relations Board .....   | 169 |
| 2. Using an Analogy to Find the Facts .....   | 170 |
| 3. Using an Analogy to Identify and Interpret the Governing Rule of Law .....                               | 171 |
| The Taggers' Cases .....   | 171 |
| 4. Using an Analogy to Apply Law to Fact .....  | 172 |
| Ford Motor Company v. National Labor Relations Board (continued) .....                               | 172 |
| E. Four Criteria for Evaluating Analogies.....  | 173 |
| 1. The Precedent Must Be Authoritative; If the Precedent Can Be Vitiated, the Analogy Fails ....            | 173 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| 2. The Legally Significant Facts of the Precedent and the Case at Bar Must Be Analogous in the Important Ways; If the Case at Bar Can Be Distinguished from the Precedent (that is, if the legally significant facts of the case at bar and the precedent differ), the Analogy Fails ..... | 173 |
| 3. The Analogy Must Be Relevant to the Issue at Hand .....   | 174 |
| 4. No Other Analogy May Be More Convincing .... Thomas the Mover .....  | 175 |
| III. Review .....  | 177 |
| The Fine Print Cases .....  | 177 |
| IV. References.....  | 179 |
| § 12. Distinctions: Distinguishing Precedents, Disanalogies, and Precedents and Levels of Abstraction .....  | 180 |
| The Musician's Case .....   | 180 |
| I. The Elements of a Distinction .....   | 182 |
| A. Difference(s) of Fact between the Precedent and the Case at Bar .....   | 183 |
| B. The Importance of the Difference(s) of Fact .....   | 183 |
| 1. Some Differences Do Not Matter .....  | 183 |
| Seth's Case: An Unsuccessful Distinction .....  | 184 |
| 2. Merely Identifying Difference(s) of Fact Does Not Distinguish a Precedent from a Case at Bar: The Importance of the Difference(s) of Fact Must Be Explained .....   | 187 |
| A Brick and a Rose Petal .....  | 187 |
| Daniela's Case: A Successful Distinction .....  | 188 |
| Seymour's Case .....  | 191 |
| C. The Conclusion .....  | 194 |
| II. The Uses of Distinctions .....   | 195 |
| III. Disanalogies.....   | 198 |
| IV. Distinctions and Levels of Abstraction.....  | 199 |
| V. Seymour's Case Expanded .....  | 201 |
| Shady Sam v. Esme .....   | 201 |
| Seymour v. Hard Luck Hank .....   | 202 |

|       |   |     |
|-------|---|-----|
| VI.   | Review .....  | 205 |
|       | The War between the Unions .....               | 205 |
|       | The Case of the Supervisor's Questions .....   | 206 |
|       | Young Tom's Case .....                         | 207 |
|       | The Fine Print Cases .....                     | 208 |
| § 13. | Holding and Dictum .....                              | 209 |
| I.    | Definitions .....                                     | 209 |
| II.   | Effect of a Holding .....                             | 209 |
| III.  | The Scope or Meaning of a Holding .....               | 210 |
|       | Union Access to Company Property .....         | 210 |
| IV.   | References.....                                       | 212 |
| § 14. | Reductios ad Absurdum.....                            | 213 |
| I.    | The Elements of a Reductio ad Absurdum .....          | 213 |
|       | The Paradox of the Arrow .....                 | 214 |
|       | The Paradox of Achilles and the Tortoise ..... | 216 |
|       | The Paradox of the Minimum Wage .....          | 217 |
| II.   | The Criteria of a Sound Reductio ad Absurdum .....    | 218 |
| III.  | Reductios ad Absurdum in Law .....                    | 218 |
| A.    | Reductios and Precedents .....                        | 218 |
| B.    | Reductios and Fact Finding .....                      | 219 |
|       | The Philosopher's Reductio .....               | 219 |
| C.    | Reductios and Policy Arguments .....                  | 220 |
| IV.   | Review .....  | 221 |
| V.    | References.....                                       | 222 |
| § 15. | Subjective and Objective Standards.....               | 223 |
| I.    | Standards.....  | 223 |
| II.   | Subjective Standards .....                            | 225 |
| III.  | Objective Standards .....                             | 226 |
| IV.   | Mixed Standards and Evidence .....                    | 227 |
| V.    | Subjective versus Objective Standards .....           | 228 |
|       | The One-Year Misunderstanding .....            | 229 |
| VI.   | Review .....  | 230 |
|       | The House of Tantalus .....                    | 230 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| § 16. Interpreting Statutes.....   | 232 |
| I. Sources .....   | 232 |
| A. Text of the Statute.....  | 233 |
| B. Purpose of the Statute .....  | 234 |
| C. Legislative History of the Statute.....                                   | 235 |
| D. Scholarly Publications .....  | 235 |
| E. Public Policy.....  | 236 |
| Cannery Row .....   | 236 |
| F. Administrative Interpretations.....                                       | 237 |
| G. Precedent.....  | 237 |
| 1. Analogous Statutes .....  | 237 |
| 2. Other Tribunals' Interpretations .....                                    | 238 |
| II. Principles .....   | 238 |
| A. The Principle of Meaningfulness .....                                     | 238 |
| Duplex v. Deering .....   | 239 |
| B. The Principle of Wholeness .....  | 240 |
| 1. Within One Statute.....   | 240 |
| 2. Between Statutes.....   | 242 |
| III. The Effect of Precedents on the Meaning of Statutes.....                | 242 |
| IV. References.....  | 244 |
| § 17. Prima Facie Case, Affirmative Defense, Burden of Proof.....            | 245 |
| I. Prima Facie Case.....   | 246 |
| A. The Basic Idea .....  | 246 |
| B. Two Meanings of "Prima Facie Case" .....                                  | 247 |
| Proving Battery .....   | 248 |
| II. Defenses.....  | 249 |
| A. Destruction of the Plaintiff's Prima Facie Case .....                     | 249 |
| B. Affirmative Defense.....  | 250 |
| A Pinch at Pong .....   | 251 |
| III. Burden of Proof .....   | 252 |
| A. Burden of Persuasion.....   | 253 |
| 1. Who Carries the Burden of Persuasion? .....                               | 253 |
| 2. How Heavy Is the Burden of Persuasion? .....                              | 253 |
| 3. What Happens If a Party Fails to Carrythe Burden of Persuasion? ..... | 253 |

|  |     |
|--|-----|
| B. Burden of Production .....  | 254 |
| IV. Prima Facie Case + Affirmative Defense = Ruleof Law .....                              | 256 |
| V. Review .....  | 256 |
| Battery on a Barstool .....   | 257 |
| The Two-Timer .....   | 258 |
| VI. References.....  | 258 |
| § 18. Application of Law to Fact .....   | 259 |
| I. Application of Law to Fact Operates Issue by Issue .....                                    | 260 |
| The Raid .....  | 260 |
| II. Direct Application of Law to Fact.....   | 261 |
| A. Direct Application of Law to Fact by Forceof Logic.....                                 | 261 |
| Caroline's Case .....   | 261 |
| Tommy's Case .....  | 263 |
| B. Direct Application of Law to Fact by Useof Judgment .....                               | 263 |
| The Coach .....   | 263 |
| Adora's Case .....  | 264 |
| Amanda's Case .....   | 269 |
| Ben-El's Case .....   | 270 |
| III. Application of Law to Fact Using Precedent .....  | 274 |
| A. Application of Law to Fact Using BindingPrecedents .....                                | 275 |
| The Honor Society Cases .....   | 275 |
| Harry the Harrier .....   | 275 |
| B. Application of Law to Fact Using GuidingPrecedents .....                                | 280 |
| The Battle of the Sexes .....   | 280 |
| IV. Review.....  | 282 |
| Dipaboli's Case .....   | 282 |
| V. References.....   | 283 |
| § 19. A Model of Legal Argument .....  | 285 |
| I. Neither a Quasi Syllogism nor a Statistical SyllogismCan Capture a Legal Argument ..... | 285 |
| Shimul's Case .....   | 285 |

|      |   |     |
|------|---|-----|
| II.  | A Model of Legal Argument .....   | 288 |
| A.   | Toulmin's Model .....   | 288 |
| B.   | Our Revision of Toulmin's Model .....   | 290 |
| 1.   | Issues as to the Issue .....  | 292 |
|      | Janus v. American Federation of State,            County, and Municipal Employees ..... | 292 |
| 2.   | Issues of Fact .....  | 294 |
| 3.   | Issues of Law .....   | 296 |
| 4.   | Issues of Application of Law to Fact.....   | 300 |
| III. | The Value of the Model .....  | 302 |
| IV.  | Review .....  | 303 |
| V.   | References.....   | 304 |
|      | Answers .....   | 305 |