Contents

Acknowledgements 9

Executive summary 11

Abbreviations 20

1. Introduction 21

1.1 Policy context 21

1.2 Project rationale 23

1.3 Project approach 24

1.4 Structure of the publication 27

Part 1. Mobility windows: conceptual framework 29

2. Review and definition of the term "mobility window" 29

2.1 A literature review 29

2.1.1 The origins of the mobility window concept 29

2.1.2 Integrated study abroad programmes 31

2.2 Definition of mobility windows 34

3. Types of mobility windows 37

3.1 Generating a typology 37

3.2 A typology of mobility windows 40

3.3 Main types in real life – integration of windows into study programmes 42

3.3.1 Mobility windows covered in the sample 42

3.3.2 Activity supported by the mobility window 43

3.3.3 Types of study programmes with mobility windows 46

3.3.4 Number of windows per programme 46

Part 2. Mobility windows in action: functioning, typical challenges and observed solutions 48

4. Why mobility windows? Rationales at the study programme and the institution level 48

4.1 Institution- and programme-focused rationales 49
4.2 Student-focused rationales 50
4.3 Policy-focused rationales 50
5. Setting-up mobility windows 52
5.1 Initiating and supporting mobility windows 52
5.2 Establishing and maintaining partnerships for mobility windows 55
5.2.1 Criteria for choosing partners 56
5.2.2 Cooperating with partners 59
5.2.3 Typical challenges and identified solutions 60
5.3 A one-way or a two-way window? One or multiple destinations? 61
5.4 Who takes part in window mobility? 64
5.4.1 Selection 65
5.4.2 Student numbers and selectivity 67
5.5 Advertising mobility windows 68
5.5.1 Information and marketing channels 69
5.5.2 Mobility window as a selling point of the programme .. 70
5.5.3 Challenges of advertising mobility windows 71
5.6 Funding mobility windows 73
5.7 Students' motivations and expectations 76
6. Integrating mobility windows into the curriculum 80
6.1 Timing of the mobility window 80
6.2 Building the content of the mobility window 82
6.3 Working to ensure window recognition 84
6.4 Typical challenges in ensuring recognition 86

7. Organising and supporting window mobility 88
7.1 Sharing responsibility – who does what? 88
7.2 Typical challenges and identified solutions 93
7.3 Funding mobility 95
8. The evaluation stage 100
8.1 Collecting feedback 100
8.2 Recognition 101
Part 3. Conclusions and recommendations 103
9. The impact of mobility windows 103
9.1 Mobility windows – a mass phenomenon? 103
9.2 Benefits of mobility windows 105
9.2.1 Benefits of mobility windows for the study programme and the institution 105
9.2.2 Students' perceptions – benefits of mobility (windows) 107
10. Recommendations 110
References 113
Annex I. Tips for making mobility windows work 117
Annex II. List of researched study programmes 119
Annex III. Biographies of the project team 140
What is ACA? 145
ACA Papers on International Cooperation in Education 146