

Contents

Table of Cases	xv
Table of Legislation	xxxv
Table of Treaties and International Instruments	lxvii
List of Abbreviations	lxix

PART 1: THE BUSINESS CORPORATION AS A LEGAL INSTITUTION

1 LEGAL AND THEORETICAL FOUNDATIONS OF THE BUSINESS CORPORATION	3
A. Concepts and Terminology in Common Law and Civil Law	4
I. Corporation and partnership as institutional archetypes	8
1. England and Wales	8
2. United States	12
3. Germany	18
4. France	22
II. The essential properties of the business corporation	26
B. Separate Legal Personality	29
I. Meaning	29
II. Economic rationale	37
C. Limited Liability	40
I. Meaning	40
II. Economic rationale	41
D. The Modern Corporation in Historic Perspective	50
E. Corporate (Law) Theory: The Nature of the Corporation	56
F. Sources of Domestic Corporate Law	74
I. United Kingdom	75
II. Germany	77
III. France	79
IV. United States	81
2 THE EUROPEANIZATION OF CORPORATE LAW	85
A. Laws and Law-making in the EU	86
I. The operation of the internal market	88
II. Nature and effect of EU law and EU legal instruments	90
III. Overview of the law-making process	94
B. The acquis unionnaire —An Overview	97
I. Constitutional foundations	98
II. First wave—external liability structure	100
III. Second wave—securities regulation and corporate mobility	103
IV. Third wave—corporate governance in listed companies	107
C. Free Movement of Companies	111
I. Regulatory competition	112
II. Freedom of establishment	118
1. Scope of application	118
2. Restrictions and justification	127
III. EU legal infrastructure	130
1. Statute for a European company (SE)	131

2. Cross-border Merger Directive	139
3. Fourteenth Company Law Directive on Transfer of the Registered Office (Cross-border Conversions)	142
D. Free Movement of Capital	142
I. Golden shares	144
II. Capital movements	146
III. Restrictions	149
IV. Justification	151
E. The Future of EU Company Law Post-Brexit	155
3 INCORPORATION AND CORPORATE REPRESENTATION	157
A. Incorporation	157
I. Incorporation processes	158
1. Germany	163
2. France	166
3. United Kingdom	170
4. United States	172
II. Disclosure, in particular upon formation	172
1. Media of disclosure	175
2. Items to be disclosed	176
3. Effects of (non-)disclosure	179
4. The situation in the United States	179
III. Nullity	184
IV. Pre-incorporation contracts	185
1. United Kingdom	187
2. Germany	190
3. France	192
4. United States	195
B. Corporate Representation	197
I. Ultra vires	200
II. Primary rules of attribution	202
1. United Kingdom	205
2. Germany	207
3. France	209
4. United States	211
III. General rules of attribution	212
1. United Kingdom	214
2. France and Germany	215
3. United States	217
C. Concluding Remarks

PART 2: STRATEGIES TO REDUCE AGENCY COSTS BETWEEN DIRECTORS AND SHAREHOLDERS

4 CORPORATE GOVERNANCE REGULATION	223
A. Power and Legitimacy in Business Corporations	223
I. The corporation as a public institution	225
II. Limits to the public-interest conception of corporate power	230
B. Corporate Governance as an Economic Problem	236
I. Efficiency and social welfare	237
II. Agency cost theory	240
III. Models of the market economy and the corporation	242
C. Corporate Governance as a Regulatory Technique	245
I. Domain of corporate governance regulation	245
II. Goal of corporate governance regulation	249

III. The corporate governance movement	273
D. Corporate Actors and Patterns of Corporate Ownership	284
I. Officers	285
II. Directors	286
III. Shareholders	290
IV. Patterns of ownership	291
E. Board Structure Regulation	299
I. One-tier and two-tier board paradigm	303
1. UK	307
2. US	309
3. Germany	311
4. France	313
II. Boards as small groups	316
III. Board composition	318
1. UK	319
2. US	321
3. Germany	323
4. France	325
5. Gender diversity	327
IV. Information rights	330
5 ELEMENTS OF SHAREHOLDER DEMOCRACY	335
A. Origins of Corporate Power	335
I. UK	336
II. US	342
III. Germany	351
IV. France	359
B. Limits of Corporate Power	363
I. UK	365
II. US	373
III. Civil law jurisdictions	378
C. Shareholder Decision-making	380
I. Shareholder voting rights	384
1. One share, one vote?	384
2. Calling a general meeting and voting at meetings	391
3. Shareholder engagement and incentives	397
II. Proxies	403
1. Proxy voting and proxy regulation	409
2. The US model: managers as proxy holders	412
3. The German model: banks as proxy holders	423
III. Challenging shareholder decision-making	428
1. Germany: legality review	432
2. Other jurisdictions	437
D. Appointment and Removal of Directors	440
I. Appointment	444
II. Removal	447
III. Appointment and removal under co-determination	454
6 CONSTRAINTS ON DISCRETION: PART 1—DIRECTORS	465
A. Introduction	465
I. Managerial decision-making and legal constraints	465
II. The fiduciary basis of directors' duties	466
B. Duty of Care	473
I. Structure of the duty of care	473
1. UK	473

	480
2. US	506
3. Germany	519
4. France	533
II. Internal control systems and excessive risk-taking	551
C. Duty of Loyalty	552
I. Self-dealing	552
1. UK	558
2. US	565
3. Germany	569
4. France	575
II. Corporate opportunities	575
1. UK	586
2. US	592
3. Germany	597
4. France
7 CONSTRAINTS ON DISCRETION: PART 2—SHAREHOLDERS	603
A. Introduction	603
B. Constraints without a Sale of Control	604
I. UK	604
1. Shareholder voting and duties	610
2. Unfairly prejudicial conduct (s 994 Companies Act 2006)	619
II. US	625
III. Germany	634
IV. France	639
C. Constraints in Sale of Control Transactions	640
I. Exit I: Mandatory bid/pro rata sharing	648
II. Exit II: Buy-out/freeze-out and appraisal	661
III. Fiduciary constraints	669
8 ENFORCEMENT	669
A. Introduction	670
B. Contractualization of Responsibility	670
I. Authorization and ratification	672
II. Indemnification and insurance	674
III. Contractual modification of directors' duties	678
C. Legal Action	678
I. Litigation by the company	681
II. Minority shareholder lawsuit	686
1. Incentive problems and the derivative action	691
2. UK	699
3. US	709
4. Germany	712
5. France	714
6. Comparative effectiveness of the minority shareholder lawsuit	716
D. Substitute Mechanisms
PART 3: CREDITORS' PREFERENTIAL ACCESS TO CORPORATE PROPERTY
9 LEGAL CAPITAL	723
A. Basic Elements in Historic Perspective	726
I. The American experience	726
II. The European experience prior to the Second Company Law Directive	731

III. The Second Company Law Directive	735
B. Raising of Capital	736
I. European jurisdictions	736
1. Types of shares and issue process	738
2. Minimum capital requirements	743
3. Contributions in cash	744
4. Contributions in kind	748
5. The German doctrine of disguised contributions in kind	751
II. United States	756
1. Consideration for shares	758
2. Protection mechanisms	759
C. Capital Maintenance	761
I. European jurisdictions	762
1. Declaring a dividend	763
2. Restrictions on dividends and distributions	765
3. Unlawful and disguised distributions	769
4. Acquisition by the company of its own shares	773
5. Financial assistance	777
II. United States	779
1. Statutory restrictions on dividends	781
2. Unlawful distributions	783
3. Contractual dividend restrictions	784
4. Acquisition by the corporation of its own shares	786
5. Financial assistance	786
D. Capital Measures	789
I. European jurisdictions	790
1. 'Effective' and 'nominal' increase	793
2. Pre-emptive rights	796
3. 'Effective' and 'nominal' reduction	800
II. United States	802
E. Comparative Analysis: Efficiency and Efficacy	804
I. Creditor protection	805
II. Shareholder protection	807
III. Overall assessment and conclusion	808
10 VEIL-PIERCING	813
A. Insider Opportunism and Veil-piercing	814
B. United States	816
I. Piercing the corporate veil	817
1. Control	820
2. Wrongful or unjust act	822
II. Enterprise liability	829
C. Germany	834
I. The law of corporate groups (Konzernrecht)	835
1. Enterprise agreements	838
2. De facto groups	840
II. Piercing the corporate veil	842
1. Liability for causing the company's insolvency— Existenzvernichtender Eingriff	843
2. Amalgamation of assets	851
D. England and Wales	853
I. 'Piercing/lifting the corporate veil' at common law	853
II. Statutory liability under Insolvency Act 1986	861
III. Liability based on tort law	868
E. France	873
I. Civil liability under company law legislation	873

II. Civil liability based on insolvency legislation	881
III. Identity of company and shareholders: société fictive and confusion de patrimoines	884
F. Concluding Remarks	889
11 CORPORATE INSOLVENCY	890
A. Ending the Corporate Existence	891
I. Grounds for (solvent) dissolution	896
II. (Solvent) liquidation processes	900
III. Termination and resurrection	902
B. The Special Case of Insolvency	906
I. Overview	907
II. England and Wales	908
1. Cash flow test or commercial insolvency test	910
2. Balance sheet insolvency	913
III. Germany	914
1. Cash flow insolvency and prospective cash flow insolvency	915
2. Balance sheet insolvency	917
IV. United States	918
1. 'Equitable (in)solvency' (cash flow insolvency) and 'unreasonably small capital'	918
2. 'Legal insolvency' (balance sheet insolvency)	920
V. France	921
1. Cash flow insolvency	921
2. Pre-insolvency procedures	923
C. Transition Regimes	925
I. Affirmative incentives	927
II. Liability incentives	930
D. From a Tragedy of the Commons to a Tragedy of the Anti-commons	934
E. Menu of Insolvency Options	935
I. Menu choice	946
II. Collective restructuring procedures and 'privatization' options	948
1. United States: Chapter 11 and §363 sales
2. England and Wales: (Pre-pack) administration, CVA, scheme of arrangement, reform proposals	954
3. France: court-assisted and in-court recovery and reorganization proceedings	961
4. Germany: standard procedure, self-administration, and insolvency plan	966
III. Group restructuring	972
1. Domestic solutions	973
2. International solutions, in particular under the 2015 EU IR	975
IV. Insolvent liquidation	977
1. Insolvent liquidation processes	978
2. Statutory orders of priority	980
F. Conclusion	985
Appendix: Competences and Decision-Making of the General Meeting	987
Index	995