

Contents

THE LAW OF PEOPLES	1
Introduction	3
PART I The First Part of Ideal Theory	11
§1 The Law of Peoples as Realistic Utopia	11
§2 Why Peoples and Not States?	23
§3 Two Original Positions	30
§4 The Principles of the Law of Peoples	35
§5 Democratic Peace and Its Stability	44
§6 Society of Liberal Peoples: Its Public Reason	54
PART II The Second Part of Ideal Theory	59
§7 Toleration of Nonliberal Peoples	59
§8 Extension to Decent Hierarchical Peoples	62
§9 Decent Consultation Hierarchy	71
§10 Human Rights	78
§11 Comments on Procedure of the Law of Peoples	82
§12 Concluding Observations	85

PART III	Nonideal Theory	89
§13	Just War Doctrine: The Right to War	89
§14	Just War Doctrine: Conduct of War	94
§15	Burdened Societies	105
§16	On Distributive Justice among Peoples	113
PART IV	Conclusion	121
§17	Public Reason and the Law of Peoples	121
§18	Reconciliation to Our Social World	124
THE IDEA OF PUBLIC REASON REVISITED		129
§1	The Idea of Public Reason	132
§2	The Content of Public Reason	140
§3	Religion and Public Reason in Democracy	149
§4	The Wide View of Public Political Culture	152
§5	On the Family as Part of the Basic Structure	156
§6	Questions about Public Reason	164
§7	Conclusion	175
Index		181