

Contents

Acknowledgments		vii
Introduction		ix
Chapter 1	Czech Statehood and the Birth of Czechoslovakia Ladislav Cabada	1
Chapter 2	The Czechoslovak Republic in the International Politics of the Interwar Period Ladislav Cabada	17
Chapter 3	From Munich to the Renewal of Czechoslovakia Ladislav Cabada	33
Chapter 4	Czechoslovakia in a Divided Europe: The Formation of Czechoslovak Foreign Policy after World War II and Relations with Its Neighbors and the Superpowers during the Cold War Šárka Waisová	51
Chapter 5	Regional Cooperation in Central Europe and Beyond: The Czech Republic as a Member of Regional Organizations Šárka Waisová	67
Chapter 6	The Czech Republic and Foreign Development Cooperation: From Donor to Recipient and Back Šárka Waisová	87

Chapter 7	The War on Terror and Dilemmas in Czech Foreign Policy: Atlanticism? Anti-Americanism? Europeanization? Šárka Waisová	107
Chapter 8	Dissident Tradition in Czech Foreign Policy: Twenty Years after Still Matters Šárka Waisová	129
Chapter 9	The Czech Republic and the Humanitarian Challenges of International Politics: An Analysis of the Nature of Czech Foreign Policy Šárka Waisová	163
Conclusion		193
Bibliography		199
Index		215
About the Authors		221