

CONTENTS

HISTORICAL NOTE	ix
PREFACE	xi
Introduction	1
I The Anti-Naturalistic Doctrines of Historicism	4
1 Generalization	5
2 Experiment	7
3 Novelty	8
4 Complexity	10
5 Inexactitude of Prediction	11
6 Objectivity and Valuation	12
7 Holism	15
8 Intuitive Understanding	17
9 Quantitative Methods	21
10 Essentialism versus Nominalism	23
II The Pro-Naturalistic Doctrines of Historicism	31
11 Comparison with Astronomy. Long-Term Forecasts and Large-Scale Forecasts	32

12	The Observational Basis	34
13	Social Dynamics	35
14	Historical Laws	36
15	Historical Prophecy versus Social Engineering	37
16	The Theory of Historical Development	40
17	Interpreting versus Planning Social Change	44
18	Conclusion of the Analysis	46
III Criticism of the Anti-Naturalistic Doctrines		50
19	Practical Aims of this Criticism	50
20	The Technological Approach to Sociology	53
21	Piecemeal versus Utopian Engineering	58
22	The Unholy Alliance with Utopianism	65
23	Criticism of Holism	70
24	The Holistic Theory of Social Experiments	76
25	The Variability of Experimental Conditions	85
26	Are Generalizations Confined to Periods?	89
IV Criticism of the Pro-Naturalistic Doctrines		96
27	Is there a Law of Evolution? Laws and Trends	96
28	The Method of Reduction. Causal Explanation. Prediction and Prophecy	110
29	The Unity of Method	120
30	Theoretical and Historical Sciences	132
31	Situational Logic in History. Historical Interpretation	136
32	The Institutional Theory of Progress	141
33	Conclusion. The Emotional Appeal of Historicism	148
INDEX		150