

CONTENTS

SECTION I

Introduction: physical education for children with disabilities	1
1 But first I have some questions, professor	3
2 Legal mandates	7
3 Continuum of placements and program planning	21
4 Parents and the motor performance team	45
5 Motor development and postural control	61
6 Perceptual-cognitive development and cognition of movement	87
7 Physical fitness development and its relationship to cognition	109

SECTION II

Teaching individuals with learning and behavior disabilities	135
8 Intellectual disabilities	137
9 Learning, attention, and developmental coordination disorders	151
10 Autistic spectrum disorders	181

SECTION III

Teaching individuals with sensory impairments	197
11 Visual impairments	199
12 Deafness and hearing loss	217

SECTION IV
Teaching individuals with congenital and acquired impairments	235
13 Posture and orthopedic impairments	237
14 Neurological disorders	262
15 Muscular dystrophy and arthritis	307
SECTION V
Teaching individuals with health impairments	329
16 Respiratory disorders	331
17 Diabetes	349
18 Nutritional disorders	363
19 Cardiovascular disorders and hypertension	381
SECTION VI
Developing and implementing the physical activity program	399
20 Behavior management	401
21 Teaching physical fitness	411
22 Teaching motor skills	425
23 Teaching adapted aquatics	460
24 Coaching and sport for persons with disabilities	476
Index	492