

| | |
|--|-----------|
| Chapter One – The First Republic (1919–1939) | 6 |
| Establishing Czechoslovakia and Securing Its Statehood | 8 |
| Arrival of General Maurice Pellé, Constituting the General Staff | 10 |
| The Slovakian War of 1919 | 12 |
| Legions Returning Home and Czechoslovak Armed Forces Unifying | 14 |
| French Military Mission in Czechoslovakia | 16 |
| 1926: Main Staff in Czech Hands, Gajda Affair | 18 |
| Czechoslovak Army in the Late 1920s | 20 |
| Military Co-operation with the Little Entente Countries | 22 |
| Prague War College | 24 |
| Reorganisation and Modernisation of the Armed Forces in the 1930s | 26 |
| International Relations of the Main Staff, Military Education | 28 |
| Manoeuvres in the 1930s and Co-operation with the USSR | 30 |
| The Main Staff Directorate for Fortification | 32 |
| Guarding the Borders in May and the September 1938 Mobilisation | 34 |
| The Munich Betrayal and the End of the Czechoslovak Republic in March 1939 | 36 |
| | |
| Chapter Two – World War II (1939–1945) | 38 |
| The Army on the Home Front – The National Defence | 40 |
| In Poland and France in 1939-1940 | 42 |
| In Great Britain I. (Army and Airforce) | 44 |
| In Great Britain II. (Heydrich's Assassination, SSCF) | 46 |
| In the Middle East in 1940-1943 | 48 |
| In the Soviet Union I. (Buzuluk, Sokolovo, Kiev) | 50 |
| Slovakian National Uprising 1944 | 52 |
| In the Soviet Union II. (Dukla, Liberation of the Republic) | 54 |
| Czechoslovak Independent Armoured Brigade at Dunkerque | 56 |
| | |
| Chapter Three – From Liberation to Totalitarianism (1945–1989) | 58 |
| First Post-war Months | 60 |
| Renovation of the Czechoslovak Army, Fights with Banderists | 62 |
| February 1948, Military Aid to the State of Israel | 64 |
| Persecution of the Officer Corps after February 1948 | 66 |
| First Cold War Years | 68 |
| Building the People's Army and Founding the Warsaw Treaty | 70 |
| The 1960s | 72 |
| 1968 – Occupation of the Czechoslovakia | 74 |
| The Normalisation | 76 |
| The 1970s | 78 |
| The 1980s | 80 |
| Czechoslovak People's Army Until November 1989 | 82 |

| | |
|---|-----------|
| Chapter Four – On the New Path (1990–2019) | 84 |
| Operation Desert Storm | 86 |
| The Divorce of Czechoslovakia, Under the UN Flag Abroad | 88 |
| Joining the NATO and Missions in the Former Yugoslavia | 90 |
| In Macedonia, Iraq and Afghanistan | 92 |
| Combating Terrorism | 94 |
| Beginnings of the Professional Army | 96 |
| In the Territory of Afghanistan | 98 |
| The Hard Fought Corners of the World | 100 |
| The Euro-Atlantic Cooperation | 102 |
| In the territory of Afghanistan II | 104 |
| Ground-breaking year of 2012 | 106 |
| From Afghanistan through Mali | 108 |
| High price of peace at home | 110 |
| On Iceland and on the home front | 112 |
| In Iraq in the Baltics | 114 |
| Festive and Tragic Year of 2018 | 116 |
| Twenty years in the Alliance | 118 |
| | |
| Bibliography | 123 |