

Contents

Introduction	vii
David Breslin and Darby English
Part One
The Perpetual State of Emergency: Who Benefits?	3
Thomas Crow
Whose Emergency?	12
Kajri Jain
Greater Depressions	23
Molly Nesbit
Part Two
Quixotic Projects: Humanities Research and Public Funding in the United Kingdom	39
Caroline Arscott
The Language of Art: A Saving Power?	48
Anatoli Mikhailov
After Scully: Emergency in the Age of Visual Democracy	59
Mary Miller
Part Three
Old Divisions and the New Art History	73
Howard Singerman
Art-Historical Alterity in the Post-Colony	85
Patrick D. Flores
The Value of Art	105
Manuel J. Borja-Villel

Part Four

Emergencia	123
Our Literal Speed
A Brief Conversation on Artist-Led Administration	139
Theaster Gates
Contributors	143
Photography Credits	148