

Contents

Introduction ( Karel Sládek ) .....	9
--	---

I. The Christian roots of European identity

1.1 The ascent of a 'holy mountain' as part of the spiritual heritage of Europe: Liturgical parable in the biblical legend of The Cave of Treasures ( Mlada Mikulicová ) .....	17
1.2 The Christianisation of the Czech lands from the East (Or: Why the mission of Cyril and Methodius was ultimately the decision not of Rome but of Constantinople) ( Miloš Szabo ) .....	37

II. Christian roots and their contribution to contemporary European identity

2.1 The Christian symbols of Europe: Tradition, change and a takeover ( Lucyna Rotter ) .....	67
2.2 The patron saints of Europe as role models for Europeans today ( Józef Marecki ) .....	75
2.3 The mission of Slavic Christians ( Karel Sládek ) .....	97
2.4 Children and Christian identity in Europe ( Noemi Bravená ) .....	111

III. A Christian perspective on current challenges to European identity

3.1 Bioethical issues in Europe: The discussion of bioethical issues in selected documents of the Catholic Church ( Marek Petro ) .....	135
3.2 Splintered anthropology: The fragility of human being in the modern market economy ( Vojtěch Mašek ) .....	153
3.3 Human identity and religious symbols in advertising ( Gabriel Palá ) .....	173
3.4 What is Shari‘a? The epistemological shift from the medieval classical period to Modern times ( Rocio Daga Portillo ) .....	189
Bibliography .....	223
About the Authors .....	241
Summary: The Christian Roots of European Identity .....	243