

Contents

Table of Cases	ix
Table of Legislation	xix
Table of Treaties and International and Regional Instruments	xxi
1. Statelessness through the Prism of International Refugee Law: The Revival of a Protection Issue	1
Part 1: Introduction	1
Part 2: Context and Relevance	4
Part 3: Scope	6
Part 4: Method and Outline of Book	10
2. A Tale of Two Conventions: The History of International Law's Protection of Stateless Persons and Refugees	15
Part 1: The Inter-War Period	18
Part 2: Post Second World War	24
Part 3: Drafting the Refugee Convention	31
Part 4: The Drafting of the 1954 Convention	40
Part 5: Institutional Considerations—the Role of the UNHCR	46
Part 6: Conclusion	49
3. The Evolving Role of Nationality in the Protection and Enjoyment of Human Rights	50
Part 1: The Significance of Nationality in International Law	52
Part 2: The International Legal Framework Governing Nationality	54
Part 3: Nationality and the Enjoyment of Human Rights in International Law	77
Part 4: Conclusion	89
4. Access to the Refugee Convention for Stateless Persons	91
Part 1: Can a Stateless Person Claim Refugee Status by Virtue of Statelessness?	92
Part 2: When is an Individual with or without a Nationality?	103
Part 3: Country of Former Habitual Residence	132
Part 4: Conclusion	143
5. Statelessness as Persecution: Examining the Causes and Consequences of Statelessness through the Lens of Refugee Law	144
Part 1: Denial of Nationality as Persecution	146
Part 2: Withdrawal of Nationality as Persecution	156

Part 3: Refusal to Re-Enter as Persecution	164
Part 4: Denial of Civil and Political Rights as Persecution	173
Part 5: Denial of Socio-Economic Rights as Persecution	178
Part 6: Complementary/Subsidiary Protection	189
Part 7: Conclusion	193
6. Denial of Refugee Protection for Stateless Persons: Cessation of and Exclusion from Protection	194
Part 1: The Cessation of Refugee Status for Stateless Persons	195
Part 2: Exclusion Based on the Availability of Protection Elsewhere	201
Part 3: Persons Undeserving of International Protection	210
Part 4: Conclusion	214
7. Conclusion	216
Bibliography	221
Index	237