

Contents

Acknowledgements	xiii
Deficiencies and Terminology	xiv
Preface	xv

Overture

Inadequate Language	1
Real People	5
A Dysfunctional System	11

MOVEMENT ONE

The State Gets Involved	14
Modern Housing	14
Land Reform and Rural Housing	16
Urban Housing	18
Free State – The First Decade	22
New Government, Similar Policy	27
A Reforming Coalition	32
Social Housing's High Point	38
Conclusion	42

MOVEMENT TWO

The State Walks Away	47
Recession and Retrenchment	47
Reduction and Residualisation	49
The End of Asset-Based Welfare	52

Letting Private Finance In	53
A New Consensus	57
House Prices Explode	65
Ignoring Good Advice	70
The Housing Bubble Bursts	81
Social Housing Strategy 2020	87
The Dáil Housing and Homeless Committee	93
New Minister, New Department, New Plan	99
Minister Coveney's Record – July 2016 to June 2017	107
Minister Murphy's Record – June 2017 to December 2018	117
Conclusion	136

MOVEMENT THREE

The Return of the State?	143
Taking a Step Back	143
A Right to Housing	149
Why Public Housing is the Answer	159
Reforming the Private Rental Sector	182
Regulating the Private Purchase Sector	194
Building Communities, Not Just Homes	202
Improving Building Control and Consumer Protection	208
Planning for the Future	215
Managing Land for the Common Good	220
Meeting the Challenge of Climate Change	226
Ending Housing Inequality	231
Conclusion	238

Coda

It's Time to Raise the Roof	240
Nye Bevan's Vision	246
Hatert Tower	251
The Promise of the Democratic Programme	252
Endnotes	255
Bibliography	264
Index	268