ANNE-SOPHIE MUTTER violin
THE RECORDING ARTS ORCHESTRA
OF LOS ANGELES
JOHN WILLIAMS conductor

Violin superstar Anne-Sophie Mutter plays music by John Williams, the most acclaimed composer in motion picture history, including themes from Schindler's List and the Star Wars and Harry Potter films, which he adapted especially for Mutter. "I'm a great admirer of his music," she affirmed after the sessions with Williams conducting some of Hollywood's finest musicians, who applauded Mutter's performances. "For me, this is an incredible adventure", responded the composer. "For Anne-Sophie to play my themes is an honor for me. Presented on the violin, they become a very different emotional experience."
