

Cover Story

Development of the HYCOPTER drone could aid the aerial inspection of large scale dam and hydropower facilities

5 World News

Construction of the largest horizontal fish screen in the US has started; funding approved for a new 15MW project in the Solomon Islands

10 Spotlight

Eddie Rich talks about his appointment as the new Chief Executive of the International Hydropower Association and his plans for the future

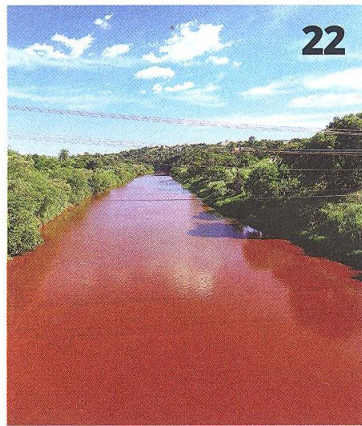

46
Classified

50
Contacts

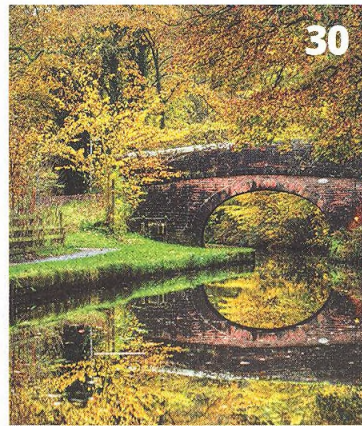

features

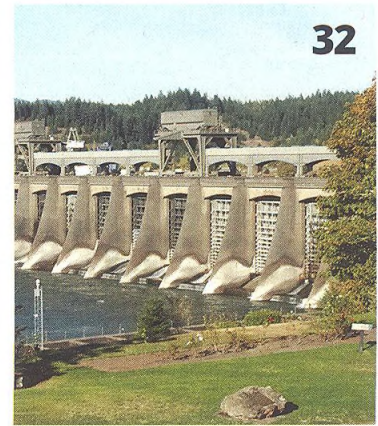

18

22

30

32

34

People

9
People on the move
Recent appointments in the industry

Finance

12
Show me the money
A round up of the latest hydro finance news

36

Equipment

16
Lifting the load
Cranes and hoists played key roles at hydro and dam projects in Switzerland and Belgium

18
Robotic system to tackle subsea biofouling

A project consortium is working to tackle the problem of biofouling in the marine energy industry

20
Flying high
A look at the development of the HYCOPTER drone

42

Planning & projects

22
The tale continues
In the aftermath of the Brumadinho tailings dam failure, ripples are being felt throughout the industry

26
US workforce development
The challenges of an ageing workforce and sector growth

28
Managing dams in an adaptive way
The AMBER project looks at the Adaptive Management of Barriers in European Rivers.

30
Update on Toddbrook Reservoir
Repair work and independent investigations continue after the spillway collapse at the UK dam in early August.

32
Still an engine of economic prosperity?
News from Bonneville Power Administration in the US

Construction

34
Constructing hydro headlines
Construction news from Australia, India and the US

New development

36
Developments in marine energy
There have been significant developments in the marine energy sector over the last few months

42
The fastest growing four
New hydropower developments in China, Brazil, Pakistan and Turkey

Digitalization

44
Transforming routine maintenance in hydro operations
How predictive maintenance is revolutionizing the monitoring and management landscape