
Asia

14

Extending innovation at Tarbela

Mark Gill at Mott MacDonald, gives more details about the fifth extension of the Tarbela hydropower project in Pakistan

16

Action all areas Asia

Activities under way in the Kyrgyz Republic, India, Lao PDR, Pakistan and the Philippines

20

Power visions

The Water and Power Development Authority (WAPDA) in Pakistan has a goal to develop a dam a decade in a bid to address water challenges and produce hydroelectricity

22

Mekong meetings

The Mekong River Commission has been working since 1995 as a regional platform for water diplomacy and a knowledge hub of water resources management. IWP&DC gives an update on its recent activities

New technology

24

Advancements in AI

Advancements in AI stand to benefit the energy sector but come with their own limitations and practical concerns

28

Real-time monitoring

A look at Trimble 4D Control Software

Risk management

30

Leapfrog gets to work at Emu Swamp Dam

Jacobs recently used Leapfrog Works to gain a clear understanding of the geology and mitigate potential risks at Emu Swamp Dam

32

Financial risks and FutureDAMS

Judith Plummer Braeckman and Jamie Skinner introduce the FutureDAMS research partnership

Environment

34

Green issues

A look at key issues concerning the industry

38

Modelling the Rio Chama

New research has shown how inclusive dynamic modelling of the Rio Chama system can provide important information about the tradeoffs inherent in flow management

41

Building climate resilience

The International Hydropower Association has developed a new guide to help the hydropower industry build resilience to climate change

42

Escaping the jaws of death

Climate change, population growth and environmental protection are creating further challenges for water resources management, particularly in the UK, writes Suzanne Pritchard