

Cover Story

Industry helps IWP&DC celebrate its 70th year in the business by sharing their success stories and experiences over the last few decades

5 World News

Indian Government declares large hydropower as renewable; Mining firms to create an international standard for tailings dams

12 Spotlight

Between 14-16 May, Paris will host the World Hydropower Congress, a major gathering of hydropower decision-makers, innovators and experts

46

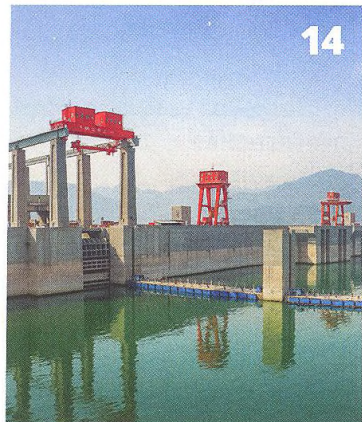

Classified

50

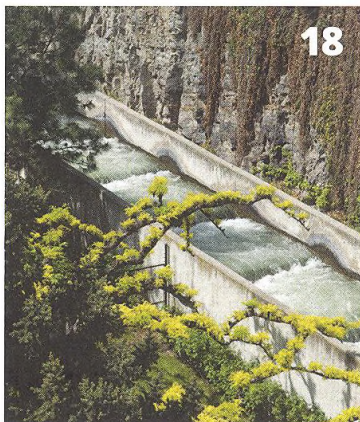

Contacts

features

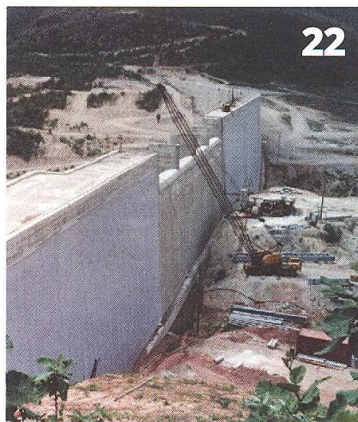

14

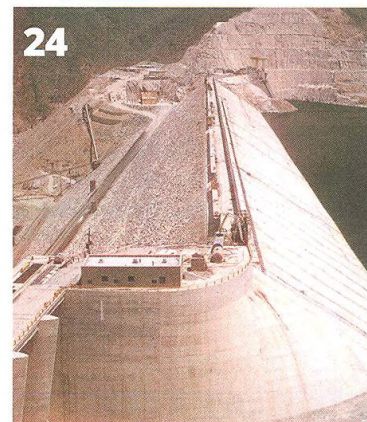

18

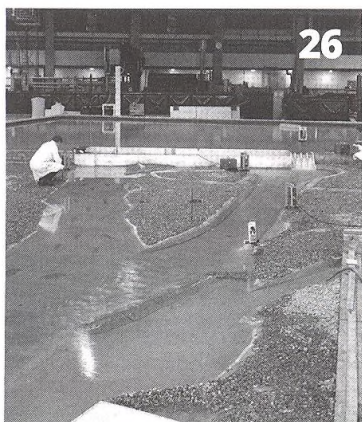

22

24

26

Spotlight

10

Parents of the revolution

The importance of planning for the coming digital age today

70th anniversary

14

Hydropower growth and development through the decades

Samuel Law and Nicholas Troja, research analysts from the International Hydropower Association (IHA), report on the sector's growth and development over the past century

16

ICOLD history is the history of dam safety

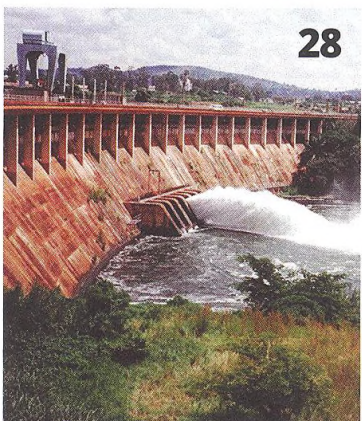

A look back at the commission's work within the hydropower and dams industry

18

Celebrating 70 years of water power and dams

Industry members reflect on the past 70 years of IWP&DC.

28

22

An overview of geomembrane application by Carpi Tech

Looking back on the application of waterproofing geomembranes

24

The progress of CFRDs

Bayardo Materón shares his views on how concrete faced rockfill dams have progressed over the past few decades

26

70 years of hydraulic research and engineering

HR Wallingford has been working on dams and reservoirs for seven decades

28

At the heart of the engineering drive

Peter Mason shares his experiences in hydropower

32

New era for historical scheme

The Snowy Mountains Scheme celebrates 70 years with expansion plans

33

70 years of impact

How could hydropower change in the next 70 years?

34

70 most influential

A list of the 70 people our readers think have had, or will have, the biggest influence on the hydropower and dams industry in recent years and in the near future

Maintenance

38

Bringing industry standards to Nepal's hydropower sector

The benefits of pre-emptive maintenance of hydropower plants explored

Safety

42

Best practice must be the minimum for safer tailings dams

The latest tailings dam failure in Brazil has prompted an investor-led demand for action to improve safety standards

32

