

Contents

Notes on Contributors	ix
Part I The Foundations of Financial Communication and Investor Relations: Theory and Industry	I
1. Investor Relations and Financial Communication: The Evolution of the Profession Alexander V. Laskin	3
2. Crisis Communication: Insights and Implications for Investor Relations Rachel L. Whitten and W. Timothy Coombs	23
3. Risk, Uncertainty, and Message Convergence: Toward a Theory of Financial Communication Kathryn E. Anthony and Steven J. Venette	33
4. The Role of Argumentation in Financial Communication and Investor Relations Rudi Palmieri	45
5. Shareholder Democracy in the Digital Age Sandra Dubé	61
6. Ethics in Financial Communication and Investor Relations: Stakeholder Expectations, Corporate Social Responsibility, and Principle-Based Analyses Shannon A. Bowen, Won-ki Moon, and Joon Kyoung Kim	71
7. Communicative Enactment of Virtue: A Structural Approach to Understanding Ethical Financial Communication Steven J. Venette and Joel O. Iverson	87
8. The Skills Required to Be a Successful Investor Relations Officer Kala Krishnan	97
9. How Shareholders Differ: Types of Shareholders and Investment Philosophies Rose Hiquet and Won-yong Oh	107
10. Financial Analysts and Their Role in Financial Communication and Investor Relations Marlies Whitehouse	117
11. Securities Law for Financial Communication and Investor Relations in the United States, 1929–2016 David L. Remund and Kathryn Kuttis	127
12. Women on Wall Street: Problematizing Gendered Metaphors in Finance Lauren Berkshire Hearit	137

Part II The Practice of Financial Communication and Investor Relations: Strategies and Tactics	145
13. Explaining Communication Choices During Equity Offerings: Market Timing or Impression Management? Danial R. Hemmings, Niamb M. Brennan, and Doris M. Merkl-Davies	147
14. Financial and Investor Relations for Start-Up Businesses and Emerging Companies Kristie Byrum	157
15. Whose Hype Matters? The Battle for Value Creation in Contemporary Financial Communications Kip Kiefer and Richard A. Hunt	167
16. Shareholder Activism and the New Role of Investor Relations Christian Pieter Hoffmann and Christian Fieseler	179
17. Corporate Proxy Contests: Overview, Application, and Outlook Matthew W. Ragas	187
18. More Than a Zero-Sum Game: Integrating Investor and Public Relations to Navigate Conflict With Activist Investors Constance S. Chandler	197
19. Integrated Reporting: Bridging Investor Relations and Strategic Management Kristin Köhler and Christian Pieter Hoffmann	209
20. Corporate Social Responsibility: Committing to Social and Environmental Impact in the Global Economy Derek Moscato	221
21. Transparency Signaling in Corporate Social Responsibility Press Releases in a Vice Industry Jessalynn Strauss	233
22. Faith-Based Investor Activism for Corporate Environmental Responsibility: Catalysts for Corporate Change? Nur Uysal	245
23. Issues Management in Investor Relations and Financial Communication Robert L. Heath	261
24. Measurement and Evaluation of Investor Relations and Financial Communication Activities Alexander V. Laskin and Anna A. Laskin	275
25. Perception Audits: Learning Investment Community Sentiment Donna N. Stein	283
26. Conference Calls: A Communication Perspective Andrea Rocci and Carlo Raimondo	293
27. When CEOs Talk: Risks, Opportunities, and Expectations of Financial Communication in an Online World Pauline A. Howes	309
28. Financial Crisis Management and Wells Fargo: Reputation or Profit? Hilary Fussell Sisco	319
29. Warren Buffett, Value Investing, Media, and Social Media Jeremy Harris Lipschultz	327
Part III Financial Communication Outside the Corporate Context: From Governments to Families	341
30. Financial Communications: The Federal Reserve System's Contributions Marci R. Schneider	343

31. Restoring Legitimacy to Financial Regulators and Institutions: Admission of Wrongdoing as a Settlement Strategy Jeffrey D. Brand	355
32. The Privileged Space of Financial Communication: Journalistic Perspectives, Relationships, and Implications for Financial Public Relations Luke Capizzo and Erich J. Sommerfeldt	365
33. Nonprofit Financial Communication: Donors' Preferred Information Types, Qualities, and Sources Timothy Penning	377
34. The Sunshine Act: Promoting Transparency in Financial Relationships Between Physicians and the Pharmaceutical Industry Laura E. Willis	391
35. A Review of Family Financial Communication Lynsey K. Romo	399
Part IV Financial Communication and Investor Relations Around the World	409
36. Consultation and Disclosure for International Financing Leticia M. Solalún	411
37. The Nordic Approach to Investor Relations Elina Melgin, Vilma Luoma-aho, Minea Hara, and Jari Melgin	419
38. Investor Relations in Germany: Institutionalization and Professional Roles Kristin Köhler	429
39. The Evolution of Financial Communication in Italy: The Case of Oscar di Bilancio Gianluca Comin, Simone Ros, and Alberto Scotti	443
40. A Stress Test for Investor Relations and Financial Communication Professionals: A Case From Europe Toni Muzi Falconi	449
41. Investor Relations and Financial Communication in an Emerging Market: The Republic of Turkey B. Pınar Özdemir	457
42. Financial Communication in India: A Case Study of the Reserve Bank and Its Governor Rajul Jain and Sarab Kochhar	465
43. Influences and Priorities in Investor Relations in Australia Ian Westbrook	473
44. Financial Communication and Investor Relations: A Latin American Approach Carolina A. Carbone and Gabriel Sadi	485
45. Investor Relations in Brazil: From the Protection of Major Stakeholders to Value Management for Concerned Parties Luiz-Alberto de Farias, Paulo Nassar, and Ágatha Camargo Paraventi	493
Index	509