
CD 1

1	Introduction	4:49
2	Archimedes 287–212 BC	3:57
3	Archimedes was himself, first and foremost...	3:01
4	Of course it was in the bath that Archimedes...	4:56
5	King Heiron died in 216 BC...	4:35
6	Johann Gutenberg 1400–1468	4:14
7	North of Strasbourg lay the city of Aachen...	4:04
8	It is not hard to imagine how the idea...	4:01
9	Gutenberg had been going to print a missal...	4:19
10	Benjamin Franklin 1706–1790	3:54
11	Benjamin headed north to New York...	4:40
12	The stove was a great success...	4:35
13	But his most famous invention came...	3:44
14	Two years later he was sent back to London...	4:25
15	Alfred Nobel 1833–1896	4:52
16	By the time Alfred Nobel was born...	3:58
17	They built a small factory, where they produced...	4:13
18	In 1888 Nobel produced a new, smokeless gunpowder...	3:08

Total time on CD 1: 75:33

CD 2

1	Alexander Graham Bell 1847–1922	3:54
2	Aleck spent a year at Edinburgh University...	4:09
3	Aleck began helping his father to teach...	4:05
4	Bell's second idea was what he called the 'harp' telephone...	3:43
5	In 1876, it was the hundredth anniversary...	4:50
6	Guglielmo Marconi 1874–1937	4:16
7	When he was 20 and on holiday in the Italian Alps...	4:16
8	By now, even his father was beginning...	4:05
9	On 26th April 1900, Marconi took out his patent number...	5:18
10	The Wright Brothers : Wilbur Wright 1867–1912
	Orville Wright 1871–1948	4:18
11	Around 1890, the first bicycles were being imported...	5:00
12	In 1900, after consulting the United States Weather Bureau...	4:37
13	When the brothers went to companies...	4:15
14	By the end of that year they had made over a hundred...	4:44
15	Thomas Alva Edison 1847–1931	4:15
16	One day, as he was walking to the train...	4:24
17	The office manager was so delighted that he hired Edison...	3:38
18	Edison had a flash of inspiration...	3:43

Time on CD 2: 77:39

Total time on CDs 1 & 2: 2:33:12