

CONTENTS

Introduction	vii
Wstęp	xv
I. SALT OF THE EARTH IN THE CONTEXT OF THE 20TH CENTURY ANTI-WAR LITERATURE
The Image of World War I in The Salt of the Earth by Józef Wittlin and in August 1914 by Alexander Solzhenitsyn Zoya Yurieff	3
Simultaneity and its Antiwar Function, or How to Write about the Second World War Krystyna Jakowska	25
The Great War and the Disintegration of the Traditional Peasant Worldview in Józef Wittlin's Salt of the Earth Leonid Heretz	41
Two Unknown Soldiers Anna Frajlich	47
The War as a Myth: the Analysis of a Development of the Religious Imagery in Joseph Wittlin's the Salt of the Earth . Elizabeth Kosakowska	61
II. JÓZEF WITTLIN—THE POET AND ESSAYIST
Expressionism and the Visual in Józef Wittlin's "Hymn of Hatred" David A. Goldfarb	75
Poezja Józefa Wittlina na obczyźnie Wojciech Ligęza	91
Laughter and Death Józef Wittlin's Reflective Humor in Orpheus in the Inferno of the Twentieth Century Joanna Rostropowicz Clark	105
Wittlin wobec „Innego” Józef Olejniczak	113

III. WITTLIN'S EUROPE AND EUROPE'S WITTLIN

- Józef Wittlin and the Tradition of Mediterranean Culture
Zygmunt Kubiak 129
- The Demise of the Austro-Hungarian Empire: Józef Wittlin's Sól ziemi and Joseph Roth's Radetzky
Jadwiga Maurer 139
- Wittlin and German Literature: Friends in an Unfriendly World
Andreas Lawaty 147
- Józef Wittlin's Passages Through France
Alice-Catherine Carls 157
- Józef Wittlin: Semblance and Reminiscence
Rizel Louise Sigele 177

IV. CONTEXTS, INTERCHANGES AND TRESPASSINGS—POLISH ÉMIGRÉ LITERATURE AND AMERICAN SLAVIC STUDIES

- Gombrowicz and Wittlin — Two Conspirators
Jerzy Jarzębski 187
- Manfred Kridl
Robert A. Maguire 201
- Wiktor Weintraub: Professing Polish Studies in America
Madeline G. Levine 213
- Beginning to Theorize "Polish Émigré Literature"
Halina Filipowicz 225
- Józef Wittlin: Bibliography for the Years 1945–1998
Paweł Kądziela 243
- Notes on Contributors 267