

CONTENTS

List of illustrations	ix
Foreword	xi
Preface	xv
Note on use of the term 'EU'	xvii
Acknowledgements	xviii
Previously published material	xix
1 Seeing EU environmental policy	1
2 Cooperating with other countries	11
3 Sustainable development in the EU Treaties	31
4 Air and acid rain	45
5 Water – towards catchment management	58
6 From waste to resources	68
7 Chemicals – the Cinderella of environmental policy	77
8 Integrating pollution control	87
9 Climate change	98
10 Science and policy	121
11 Volume control for sustainability	137
12 Allocating tasks – subsidiarity	142

13	The precautionary principle	150
14	Making the legislation work	162
15	Retaining the centre stage David Baldock	181
Appendix		197
EU legislation mentioned in the text		205
International conventions and their protocols mentioned in the text		208
Index		209

CONTENTS

ix	List of illustrations
x	Foreword
xv	Preface
xvii	Note on use of the term 'EU'
xviii	Acknowledgements
xix	Previously published material
1	1 Seeing EU environmental policy
11	2 Cooperating with other countries
31	3 Sustainable development in the EU Treaties
45	4 Air and acid rain
58	5 Water - towards catchment management
68	6 From waste to resources
77	7 Chemicals - the Cinderella of environmental policy
87	8 Integrating pollution control
98	9 Climate change
121	10 Science and policy
137	11 Volume control for sustainability
142	12 Allocating tasks - subsidiarity