

■ IN BRIEF	7	The FBI vs. Trump ● Amazon vs. the Pentagon
■ AGENDA	8	Uber in London ● Boeing in space ● The next debate
■ REMARKS	10	Shaking down a tidy sum while policing Russia's banks
1 BUSINESS	14 16	Cheap natural gas lures petrochemical giants to the U.S. How will Saudi Arabia spend all that IPO money?
2 TECHNOLOGY	18 20	Roku has something that the competition wants Viewers love streaming—until they have to pay for it
3 FINANCE	22 24 25	Check those earnings carefully. They may be “adjusted” A private equity investor helps get Lululemon back in trim Love your Apple Card? Your retailer doesn't
4 ECONOMICS	26 27	As Argentina's government reforms, all eyes are on the VP ▼ Why this and other Oklahoma CEOs are hiring ex-cons

	29	Vanishing recession fears give Trump less to worry about
5 POLITICS	30 33	Chinese Americans suffer as U.S.-China relations sour The U.S. cries foul over a Chinese tech transfer program
+ SOLUTIONS / RISK	34 36 37	Space. The final frontier. With satellites about to collide Recycling totaled vehicles, and saving the environment Doctor visits, $35, no insurance required
■ PURSUITS / PHILANTHROPY SPECIAL	59 62 63 64 66 67	Two altruistic billionaires out to fix... everything It's getting harder, and pricier, to save Venice's treasures Keeping a Maine forest both protected and accessible Airbnb and WAP unite to make the world safer for critters A crowded shelf of books on smarter ways to give The greening of Patagonia's parkas
■ LAST THING	68	People are spending more on health care, less on food

FEATURES

38

The Humans Behind Smart Devices

Contractors for Amazon, Apple, and others hear more than you realize

44

The Problem With Drug Recalls

At its most assertive, the FDA still can't do much

50

Carlos Ghosn's Hard Fall

The auto icon lost everything. Next comes the trial