

Table of Contents

Acknowledgements	7
Introduction	11
Civil Resistance and Contentious Space in Hong Kong Ngok Ma and Edmund W. Cheng
Part A Trajectory and Contingency
1 From Political Acquiescence to Civil Disobedience Hong Kong's Road to Occupation Ngok Ma	27
2 Spontaneity and Civil Resistance A Counter Frame of the Umbrella Movement Edmund W. Cheng	51
3 Rude Awakening New Participants and the Umbrella Movement Ngok Ma	77
Part B Repertoires and Strategies
4 Perceived Outcomes and Willingness to Retreat among Umbrella Movement Participants Francis Lee and Gary Tang	101
5 Praxis of Cultivating Civic Spontaneity Aesthetic Intervention in the Umbrella Movement Cheuk-Hang Leung and Sampson Wong	125
6 Creating a Textual Public Space Slogans and Texts from the Umbrella Movement Sebastian Veg	149

Part C Regime and Public Responses

- 7 From Repression to Attrition 185
State Responses towards the Umbrella Movement
Samson Yuen
- 8 Protesters and Tactical Escalation 209
Yongshun Cai
- 9 Mass Support for the Umbrella Movement 233
Ming Sing
- 10 Correlates of Public Attitudes toward the Umbrella Movement 251
Stan Hok-Wui Wong

Part D Comparative Perspectives

- 11 The Power of Sunflower 279
The Origin and the Impact of Taiwan's Protest against Free Trade with China
Ming-sho Ho and Thung-hong Lin
- 12 The Mirror Image 311
How does Macao Society read Hong Kong's Umbrella Movement?
Eilo Yu Wing-yat
- 13 Hong Kong Now, Shanghai Then 335
Jeffrey Wasserstrom
- Appendix 347
The Umbrella Movement—Chronology of Major Events
- Index 353