

Contents

FIGURES AND TABLES	vii
FOREWORD	x
INTRODUCTION	1
Defining reform	2
The organization of the book	3
1 THE PRESSURES FOR REFORM	5
The context for health reform	5
The reform predicament: health and health sector challenges	13
2 INTEGRATING REFORM THEMES	39
The changing roles of state and market in health care	39
Reorganizing the system: decentralization, recentralization and privatization ..	43
Empowerment, rights and choice	58
The evolving role of public health	65
3 CONFRONTING RESOURCE SCARCITY	79
Containing costs more effectively	79
An appropriate role for cost sharing	83
Priority setting in health care	101
4 FUNDING SYSTEMS EQUITABLY	115
Trends in health care funding	115
Solidarity and competition	133
5 ALLOCATING RESOURCES EFFECTIVELY	141
Buying better health: resource allocation, purchasing and contracting	141
Performance-related payment systems for providers	152
Cost-effective provision of pharmaceuticals	174
Allocating capital for investing in health	196
6 DELIVERING SERVICES EFFICIENTLY	203
Improving outcomes and quality of care	203
Decentralized provider management	213
Shifting boundaries: hospitals, PHC and community care	214
Restructuring hospitals	217
A renewed role for PHC	232
Developing human resources	239

7	THE PROCESS OF IMPLEMENTING REFORM	247
	A framework for the analysis of implementation	247
	Learning from experience	259
	Strategies for implementation	265
8	THE WAY FORWARD	273
	Pursuing supply-side reforms	273
	Reorienting state regulation	275
	REFERENCES	279
	ANNEX – AUTHORS, PAPER TITLES AND CONTRIBUTIONS	305