

Theory and Practice of Cost Analysis

Table of Contents	Page
Purpose of this Book	1
A. Fundamentals of Cost Accounting	2
I. Expense and Income - an Analysis of a Profit and Loss Account	2
II. Basic terms of Cost Analysis	6
III. Imputed Costs	8
IV. Fixed Costs and Variable Costs	11
V. Individual Costs and Overhead Costs	13
VI. Fields of Cost Accounting	15
VII. Types-of-Cost Accounting: Basis for Rationalisation Measures	16
1. Rationalisation of Material Management by Material Vouchers and Piece Lists	17
2. Rationalisation by Logistics Management	19
3. Rationalisation by Fleet Management	20
4. Rationalisation by Management of Travel Expenses	21
5. Rationalisation by Facility Management	22
VIII. Cost Centre Accounting	23
1. Outsourcing	23
2. Management Buy-out	23
3. Franchising	24
4. Insourcing	24
IX. Unit-of-Output Costing: A Comparison between Full Costing and Direct Costing	25

	page
B. Introduction into Unit-of-Output Costing on a Partial-Cost Basis: Break-Even Analysis (Direct Costing)	27
I. Finding the Break-Even Point and Break-Even Turnover	28
II. Financing an Increase in Capital Investment	29
III. Planning an Increase in Profit	30
IV. Cancellation of a Preferential Price	31
V. Covering the Costs of an Advertising Campaign	32
VI. The Consequences of Cost and Price Variations	33
VII. The Impacts of a Decrease of Sales	35
VIII. Lowest Possible Prices	36
IX. Determination of the Ranking of Products	38
X. Relative Contribution Margins (Bottleneck Problem)	40
XI. Internal Production or Outside Purchasing? (Make or Buy?)	42
XII. Costs of Different Production Methods	44
C. Latest Developments of Cost Analysis	46
I. Quality Costs	47
1. Definition and Relevance of Quality	47
2. The Norm DIN ISO 9000 - 9004	47
3. Determining and Controlling of Quality Costs	48
II. Costs for the Protection of the Environment	49
1. Environmental Cost Accounting: Definition and Benefit	49
2. Procedure for the Introduction of Environmental Cost Accounting	50
3. Summary	51

	page
III. Target Costing	52
1. Causes for Target Costing	52
2. Advantages of Target Costing	53
3. The Realisation of Target Costing	53
IV. Activity Based Costing	55
1. The Origin of Activity Based Costing	55
2. How to Manage Activity Based Costing	56
3. Chances and Limitations of Activity Based Costing	57
V. The Future Relevance of Cost Accounting	58
VI. Results Accounting	62
1. Earnings of Market Sales	62
2. Earnings of Internal Sales	63
3. Increase in Stock	63
D. Exercises with Solutions	65
Exercise 1	65
Exercise 2	66
Exercise 3	68
Literature	IV