

Contents

Introduction	7
Part A.
THE GEOPOLITICAL SCHEME OF THE HISTORY OF EUROPE	9
1. Prologue: Geopolitics and Foreign Policy	11
2. Pre-Columbian Europe	30
3. The Geopolitical Turning Point in the 15th Century	56
4. Central Europe	65
5. Bipolarity and Hegemony in the 20th Century	98
Part B.
MODELS FOR THE ORGANIZATION OF CENTRAL EUROPE	119
6. The Pan-Germanic Idea and Mitteleuropa	121
7. The Pan-Slavonic Idea and Federation	160
8. The Austrian Federation: František Palacký	198
9. The Nation State: Tomáš G. Masaryk	227
10. The Danubian Federation: Milan Hodža	251
Part C.
THE SEARCH FOR NATIONAL INTEREST	261
11. The Nation in Central Europe	263
12. The Right to a State	309
13. The Frontiers of the Czech Republic	328
14. The Frontiers of the Slovak Republic	342

Part D.

THE GEOPOLITICAL UNCERTAINTY OF CENTRAL EUROPE	357
15. The Future according to Geopolitics	359
16. Threatening Prophecies	375
17. The Power and Strength of the Small State	398
18. NATO and Central Europe	424
19. The European Union and Central Europe	442
20. Epilogue: The State Idea and Foreign Policy	459
Bibliography	479