

TABLE OF CONTENTS

| | |
|--|-----|
| INTRODUCTION | 7 |
| 1. WHO ARE ELDERS? | 9 |
| 1.1. Entering the gates of the old age | 11 |
| 2. ELDER'S QUALITY OF LIFE | 15 |
| 2.1. Subjective view of the elder's quality of life | 15 |
| 2.1.1. The map of life of russian and slovak elders | 20 |
| 2.2. Elders and loneliness | 23 |
| 2.2.1. Loneliness and its consequences for self-esteem and self-reflection of elders | 25 |
| 2.2.2. Self-esteem: theoretical background | 26 |
| 3. OBJECTIVE FACTORS RELATED TO OLD AGE | 37 |
| 3.1. What is ageism? | 38 |
| 3.2. What affects the attitudes toward ageing and ageism? | 46 |
| 3.2.1. Ageing anxiety | 46 |
| 3.2.2. Intergenerational contact – segregation vs. integration | 58 |
| 3.2.3. Knowledge about the ageing process as a brake on ageing myths and stereotypes | 72 |
| 4. ELDERS AND WORK | 81 |
| 4.1. Elders and ageism at work | 83 |
| 4.2. Attitudes toward employment of elders as viewed by the younger, middle and older generation of employees | 89 |
| CONCLUSION | 99 |
| BIBLIOGRAPHY | 101 |