

CONTENTS

Preface	3
1 THE CHILD'S PERSONALITY AS AN INDEPENDENT AND DISTINCTIVE EXISTENCE	7
1.1 Concept of personality	7
1.2 Inheritance, environment and education, three important factors in child development	11
2 THE CHILD IN SELECTED THEORIES	15
2.1 Empiricism	15
2.2 Nativism	16
2.3 Interactionism	18
3 FROM THREE TO SIX – KINDERGARTEN AGE	20
3.1 Beginning of preschool period, first social emancipation of the child	20
3.2 Personality in the concept of S. Freud	21
3.3 Initiative versus guilt (E. H. Erikson)	24
4 SUPPORT OF DESIRED BEHAVIOUR OR CHANGE INTO POSITIVE RESPONSE	27
4.1 Reward as a means of education	27
4.2 Punishment as a negative stimulus causing displeasure	27
5 NATURE AND PRINCIPLES OF CHILD'S MENTALITY	31
6 ATTITUDE TO THE CHILD – INSPIRED BY CARL R. ROGERS	36
6.1 Unreserved acceptance of the child by the adult	37
6.2 Expressing empathy through communication techniques	40
6.3 Congruence – balance between internal experiencing and external behaviour	43
7 SUPPORTING THE CAPABILITY OF DECENTRATION	46
7.1 From centration to decentration	46
8 KNOWLEDGE AS A RESULT OF THE CHILD'S EXPERIENCE	50
8.1 Child's thinking according to J. Piaget	51
8.2 L. S. Vygotsky – cognitive development theorist	59
8.3 Zone of proximal development in the teacher's work	61
9 CHILD SOCIALIZATION	64
9.1 Stages of child socialization	64
9.2 Developmental aspects of child socialization	65

10	EVERYBODY BELONGS SOMEWHERE	69
10.1	Arrival in the world – the beginning of active dialogue.	69
10.2	The family as a system of human community	71
10.3	The child in contemporary family	72
10.4	From denial to acknowledgement and support	74
10.5	Overview of family functions	76
10.6	When intervention is needed	80
10.7	Rituals in the family	84
10.8	Book in the life of the preschool child.....	86
11	EDUCATOR-CHILD RELATIONSHIP OR MUTUAL SATISFACTION OF PSYCHOLOGICAL NEEDS	92
12	KINDERGARTEN – INSTITUTION FOR CONTROLLED EDUCATION.	102
12.1	Preschool education as part of lifelong learning	102
12.2	Preschool education as part of lifelong learning	105
12.3	Isced 0 programmes – international standard classification of education.	108
13	CONTEMPORARY KINDERGARTEN.	111
13.1	Curricular reform in the context of preschool education	111
13.2	Changes in the concept of the preschool curriculum.	112
14	CONSTRUCTIVISM IN PRESCHOOL EDUCATION	122
14.1	Interaction in preschool education	122
14.2	Representation, a method of processing and storing of experiences.	126
14.3	Cooperative learning in preschool education	129
15	PLAY AND KINDERGARTEN CURRICULUM	133
15.1	Perspectives of the most significant thinkers in the area of play	133
15.2	Play of preschool child	136
15.3	Imaginative play as a means of decentration	140
16	PRESCHOOL EDUCATION IN STATISTICAL INDICATORS	144
17	KINDERGARTEN AND THE FAMILY	153
17.1	Kindergarten and the role of parents.	153
17.2	Kindergarten as reflected by parents	156
	EPILOGUE	161
	SUMMARY	162
	REFERENCES	163